HOUSE VOTES TUESDAY ON INCOME TAX PLAN

Appeal Is Made by Governor for Action on Reform at Special Session of Legislature.

While the Georgia house of representatives failed to reach a vote on the various income tax bills Thursday, devoting the day to hearing numerous speeches on the subject, the senate finance committee continued its work of consideration of the general tax act, making a number of important changes in that measure, which it will recommend to the upper body when the bill comes before it for final passage.

A manufacturers' tax of five cents on candy sold at a retail price of 50 cents a pound or more; repeal of the provisions stipulating increase in tax rates on insurance premiums and soft drinks; repeal of the provision taxing corporations $100 on each $1,000,000 of capital stock above $2,000,000, and a number of other committee amendments were voted by the senate finance committee Thursday afternoon.
In the final day's consideration of the general tax act. The act as amended will be recommended for passage in the upper house Friday morning, according to Chairman Mason.

Debate Unrestricted.
Although it had been expected that the house would reach a vote on the various income tax bills, amendments and substitutes Thursday afternoon, it was decided at an executive meeting of the rules committee to allow unrestricted debate on the question, and to call for the vote at 11 o'clock
Tuesday morning.

Governor Walker appearing before the committee pleading for the earliest possible action on the question, reminded members of the committee of the situation at the regular session last summer, when, he said, a large majority of the house came to Atlanta, expecting and favoring taxation reform. He said that he had done everything possible at that time, so pass tax reform bills during the regular fifty days, and that it was only because of delays that the necessary laws had not been adopted.

Calls Extra Session.
He stated that he had then called the extra session in order to accomplish the desired object, which had been pushed out of consideration at the regular session by other matters, and delaying tactics.

He reminded the members that every day of this special session is costing the taxpayers of the state $2,500, and urged that all unnecessary delay in getting to a vote on the question be avoided.

Members of the committee who favored the Bussey bill, pointed out that Mr. Bussey has not yet had the opportunity to be heard, owing to the serious illness of his mother, which has called him away from the assembly this week, and threatened to organize a determined filibuster against any attempt to bring about a vote at this time.

Under these circumstances, the committee decided to postpone the call for the vote until Tuesday morning, and will make its report, carrying this recommendation Monday, it is understood.

Careful consideration by the senate committee has been given each separate paragraph of the general tax act as passed last week by the house, and while a number of amendments have been voted by the committee, it is expected that both houses will con-

Second Victim of Practised Knife Found in a Waukegan Hospital, Near Chicago.

CHICAGO U. READY TO HELP PROBES

Earle English, Cousin of First Sufferer, Held for Mayhem—Many Others Involved, Claim.

BY UNITED NEWS.

Chicago, November 22.—Gland bandits became the most startling problem before the Chicago police late Thursday when a University of Chicago student was formally arrested in connection with one gland robbery, and the second crime of the kind in the past 24 hours was reported in Waukegan.

Earle English, 19-year-old university economics student, was booked on charges of mayhem in connection with the kidnapping and mutilation of Charles Ream, said to be his cousin.
Simultaneously, John Powell, 28, of North Chicago, was found in a Waukegan hospital, similarly mutilated.
He was able to give few details of the attack.

University of Chicago authorities have already taken official cognizance of Ream's mutilation and Police Lieutenant Michael Grady, who questioned several university medical students during the day, intimated that a number of other students will be involved in the case of Ream.

English Arrested Quickly.
English has been in custody since the investigation of the forced operation on Ream began early Wednesday.

Late Thursday his attorney appeared for a writ of habeas corpus, and told Superior Court Judge Mc-Donald that the police were making English miss his classes.

"There are likely to be a lot of university students in jail when this investigation is concluded," Grady replied.

"We want more time to question English. This is a terrible case, and there is no question but that English is connected with it."

English was subsequently booked on the charge of mayhem.

Meanwhile Ream lies on a hospital cot, uninformed of the nature of his injury.

Ream Blames "Sissies."
"Hunt for a couple of sissy college punks," he told the police. "They're the drunken bums who kidnapped me, cut me up and left me lying in a weakened condition on a stretch of barren prairie."

The police are still working on the theory that Ream's glands were stolen so that they might be transplanted to another man's body for purposes of rejuvenation. The skill and care with which the operation was done, they declare, show clearly that the motive was not one of revenge.

"I do not believe the operation was performed by a medical student," said a medical professor at Chicago university. "If it was, it must have been the work of an advanced student be-

UNDERWOOD WILL ADDRESS SOLONS

Candidate for President Will Speak This Morning—Alabama Optimistic Over Chances.

United States Senator Oscar W.
Underwood, of Alabama, democratic leader and candidate for president at the forthcoming presidential campaign in 1924, arrived in Atlanta at 9:30 o'clock Thursday night, in response to an invitation extended him by the Georgia general assembly to deliver an address Friday morning.

Senator Underwood, who has been the outstanding figure of the democratic party from this section for the last 20 years, has just completed a tour of the eastern and central states where he delivered a series of addresses regarding conditions in Europe as obtained by him on a recent trip abroad. In virtually every city in which he has visited on the trip indications point to a democratic victory in the presidential race next year, he declared.

Believes in Prospects.
Regarding his chances for nomination at the democratic convention, Senator Underwood asserted that he did not desire to "toot his own horn," but that his prospects were exceedingly encouraging. He predicts that the democratic party will win a sweeping victory at the polls next year and that its majority will be as large, if not larger, than the last republican victory.

Senator Underwood paid tribute to the late President Harding, declaring himself a devoted admirer of the

Dr. Cook Dons Poker Face
As He Paces Floor of His Cell

EXPLORER DENIES STORING LUCRE OF LAMBS

Fort Worth Tex., November 22.—
Dr. Frederick A. Cook, fined $12,000 and sentenced to fourteen years and nine months in prison after being found guilty Wednesday of using the mails to defraud, wore his best "poker face" Thursday night as he paced the stone floor of the county jail here.

In a rather nonchalant manner, as if the fine and sentence rested lightly upon his shoulders, the man who leaped into national prominence in 1909 by his claims that he had discovered the north pole denied he had denied any of his ill-gotten gains as was hinted by Federal Judge Kill-its in passing the sentence.

"I'm flat," Cook yawned lazily.
The 68-year-old explorer of the Arctic regions confided in one of the jail guards that he believed the higher courts to which he would appeal his sentence would save him from prison.
The other twelve associates of Cook, who were found guilty and given prison terms from seven years to a year and a day and fines from $12,- 000 to $1,000, spent the day following their conviction playing cards, dominoes and consuming great numbers of cigarettes. It could not be learned how many would appeal their cases.

Cook, who was "chief trustee" of the Petroleum Producers' association, for whose promotion the men were sentenced, only once lost the impensable mask which covered his features as witness after witness took the stand and accused him of stealing their life savings. That was when the jury found him guilty. He rested his head on his arm which lay on the counsel table, but in a few moments he had recovered his composure.

He said he would be forced to depend upon friends and relatives to finance an appeal from his convictions.
His bond was placed at $75,- 000 by Judge Killits.

COBB AUTHORITIES
PLAN EARLY TRIAL OF BEATING CASE

Alibis Will Be Submitted by Keller Hasty, Athletic Pitcher, and His Two Brothers.

Marietta, Ga., November 22.—(Special).—Assuming personal direction of investigation into the cases of the first six men ever indicted in Georgia for flogging a woman, Solicitor General John S. Wood, Thursday, was preparing to bring all of them to trial during the three-day criminal session of Cobb superior court next week.

Alibis to be submitted by the three Hasty brothers, including Keller Hasty, of the Philadelphia American league baseball club, will be attacked by the state in an effort to support the indictments, it was indicated at the courthouse.

The solicitor general and private detectives retained by C. F. Verhine,
the father of the flogged woman, Mrs.
Bertha Holcombe, were making a determined effort to throw a cloak of secrecy over the operations of the investigators.

Woman Talks Freely.
Mrs. Holcombe herself, however, talked with utter freedom of the incidents of last Friday night, when she and S. H. Morton, of Atlanta, are alleged to have been abducted and flogged by a group of masked men.
She says there were at least 12 men.
She freely expressed her theory of the cause of the flogging, attributing it to jealousy on the part of some of "the village boys" of Smyrna, and unrequited affection on the part of Parks C. Cook, Atlanta mechanic, who resides at Smyrna with his wife and seven children, and of Joe Bramlett, another Smyrna resident.

The part played by Keller, Frank and Arthur Hasty in the actual flogging was not explained by the young woman. She supplemented her first account of the abduction in a statement Thursday that the masked men had left her on the front porch of the Hasty home, nearly three-quarters of a mile from her own home, and that Frank and Arthur Hasty had carried her in their automobile to her own home.

This statement was confirmed by Mrs. W. D. Hasty, mother of the accused youths, it was reported here.
She said that the young men had just returned from a motion picture show in Marietta between 11 o'clock and 12 o'clock Friday night when the woman, a young and attractive widow, was heard on the front porch. Mrs.
Hasty supported her sons' statements that they could establish alibis.

Morton Is Arrested.
S. M. Morton, Mrs. Holcombe's companion who was flogged with her, was arrested in Atlanta early Thursday morning on charges of being drunk and possessing whisky. He was held in jail until about 12:30 o'clock when he was permitted to make $100 bond at Fulton tower to men will be held at 10 o'clock this morning at the Ansley hotel with an address of welcome by Governor Clifford Walker. Prominent women leaders of several states have arrived and will participate in the Friday and Saturday sessions.

Mrs. Emily Newell Blair, vice preecutive committee as expected to take a leading role in the business of the two-day session and a definite program of activity among women leaders of the party in the third region is expected to result.

Mrs. Blair's address on the "Immediate and Ultimate" immediately following the opening of the afternoon session at 2:30 o'clock will outline some of the plans of the national committee for the coming campaign.

Senator Oscar Underwood, of Alabama, candidate for the democratic nomination for the presidency, arrived in the city Thursday night and will address the meeting Saturday morning.

Mrs. Benton McMillin of Nashville, Tenn., democratic committeewoman for Tennessee and third re-

John M. Slaton, Jr., assistant to M. Bryson, district manager of the fifth district veterans' bureau here, Thursday characterized as "perhaps revengeful" charges of inefficiency preferred against the local bureau by Dr. M. L. Townsend, former medical examining officer for the Charlotte subdistrict.

Formal charges of inefficiency in administration and favoritism in personnel appointments were preferred by Dr. Townsend Wednesday, according to Associated Press dispatches reaching Atlanta Thursday. Dr. Donnelly, formerly a tuberculosis specialist in the veterans' hospital at Charlotte, substantiated Dr. Townsend's charges, dispatches stated. Filing of charges followed a conference between the two physicians and Senator Overman.

It was stated at headquarters here
Thursday that District Manager Bryson was on a tour of inspection through North Carolina and Tennessee and was not expected back before December 1. Mr. Slaton is act-

Charlotte, N. C., November 21.—
Formal charges of inefficiency in adwith the veterans' bureau in Washoffice of the fifth district, with headstate of North Carolina.

The charges were filed, it was stated, following a conference be-sent to the district to investigate.

The district is composed of Georgia, Florida, Tennessee and North and South Carolina.

ALPHA TO OMEGA OF TRADE IS SEEN

Mysteries of Midnight Journeys, Phantom Ships, Slinking Men Ferreted Out in Probe.

Savannah, Ga., November 22.— (Special).—Revelation of a gigantic liquor organization, operating along the Atlantic coast with its tentacles reaching for hundreds of miles inland, together with the inside workings of the ring, involving transportation by every conceivable means and distribution by covert—and hidden channels, is expected by federal authorities following the indictment of more than one hundred persons in the greatest coup against the illicit liquor trade ever carried out on the east coast. This was the information reaching Savannah today.

The second day of the trial of eight Savannah men, charged with conspiracy to violate the federal prohibition laws, and expected to prove highly sensational, dropped to a stubborn legal battle between counsel over technicalities as to the admission of mourn testimony today. The court adjudged with witnesses yet to be heard.

The fight being made, both by the government and the defense, has been fueled by many as being indicative that there is much more of the immediate cases, as relatively unusual and important as they are. The announcement that in various parts of the country more than 125 indictments are expected, accentuated the interest in the immediate trial. Conspiracy is charged, it is said, in many of these indictments, affecting persons over the whole Atlantic seaboard and the interior for several hundred miles.

Expect Revelations.
It is said that the case, which the government hopes to develop from the far reaching scope of the activity of secret service men culminating in the indictments this week the biggest "ring" yet revealed will be unearthed; that the "big boys" who have financed the importing and transporting and selling, the protecting and defending men and co-operating and co-ordinating of the business from sea up coast and inland, will be located. That revelations will be forthcoming to make a complete story of the trip of the booze from the high seas by devious, dark ways through many hands with much profit, to far inland cities to the consumer.

Foreigners, Canadian, and some Cuban and Bermuda residents may be implicated; methods of importing the liquor, contrary to the customs laws, as well as in violation of the prohibition law, the multiplied violations of sea and port regulations for shipping and even the matter of asserted adulteration of imported liquors on board vessels at sea, may be revealed.

Slinking Methods.
From the men who buy the stuff aboard, bringing in ships to the point at which they do not dare come closer to shore, the fast launches and yachts which dart out, and slink back under cover of night to slide into the unfrequented water ways on the coast about Savannah, Montgomery, Isle of Hope and down the coast as far as Brunswick; the men who prepare to receive the stuff, by trucks and other methods, for quick midnight shifting to strong, guarded cellars, sometimes constructed in the far forests;
the men who supply the means for the risky business and who keep out of it actually, and have never been suspected; the transportation of the stuff by a thousand methods of camou-flagage as oils and as furniture, as po-

News Outside the Door.

When Cybele, Great Mother of the Gods, retires to her mountain caves to pass the winter, she is watched by lions who guard her until the soft winds of spring call.
While she sleeps the work of the natural world goes on. From the coral reefs of Florida to the frozen mountains of the Arctic the face of the earth is profoundly changed by Cybele's agents. Jack Frost, with white plumes and crystal lanes, attacks the edges of thousand hills, cracking the ice into cracks and pushing blocks of stone into the valleys.

The ice of lakes and rivers pick up and transports boulders and gravel. Particles of the surface on high ledges, softened and masticated by lichens and mosses are pried off by the ice, washed by the melting snows, and blown far across the country as dust by Aeolus, keeper of the winds.

Hermes, messenger of the gods and fatness and as electric batteries, in boxes and crates and under piles of vegetables, in whole carloads and in packages that get by the surveillance of the steamship and railroad lines; the automobile transportation from the coast to points as far inland as St. Louis; the fictitious names employed, the wire system of warnings set up, the ramifications of the whole business that included Charleston and Columbia, Birmingham and St. Louis, Philadelphia and New York and even supply to Washington City itself—all this may come out when the complete case is in hand. No names of defendants are available till arrests are made and arrests are expected in a dozen cities this week.

Conspiracy Charges.
In most of the cases in which recent indictments have been returned it is said there will be conspiracy charges and the present case for conspiracy and the character of testimony on which such a case may depend is therefore considered a vitally important one. Additional local developments today were the arrest of Richard A. Bailey and C. C. Tuten, charged with conspiracy, and released on bonds of $20,000 and $15,000, respectively.

VAST SUM INVESTED IN RUM TRAFFIC

New York, November 22.—Local federal prosecutors disclosed today that they were planning the arrest of several prominent Englishmen and Americans as members of the International Bootlegging Combine in which 126 persons indicted yesterday at Savannah, Ga., are alleged to have been involved.

The combine, according to officials, invested vast sums in the transfer of liquor from England to this country, where it was bootlegged wholesale through a well-organized system, in principal cities of eastern states. There were intimations that the Savannah indictments were only a portion of the number expected in other states, chiefly New York and Pennsylvania, and that news of the Georgia grand jury's action had spurred federal agents here and elsewhere to fever of activity in order to round up the alleged leaders of the liquor combine before they got under cover.

YOUTH TELLS DETAILS OF OPERATIONS

Savannah, Ga., November 22.—(By the Associated Press.)—The sensation of the day in the trial of eight alleged violators of the national prohibition law was the introduction by the government of Porter G. Hunter, 19-years-old, a native of Scotland, who testified in detail concerning alleged liquor operators of the defendants now on trial. Hunter, who lived in Scotland until 1920, declared he knew all the defendants and had been employed by John Harris at Victory Inn. He told of selling liquor for Harris. He left the employ of Harris and went to work for W. H. Haas.

The government, in hearing the completion of direct testimony against W. H. Haas, F. H. Haas, F. H. Haas, Jr., Carl Haas, John Harris and Buck Walker, charged with conspiracy to violate the prohibition law, is not expected that the cases will go to the jury before Monday.

pital shall be in practically every southern state.

The Golden Cross society is to be composed of all persons who have a desire to participate in the healing work undertaken by the Methodist church, paying an enrollment fee of an optional amount. It is anticipated that at least a half million persons will enroll in the Golden Cross society.

A special order of the day has been set for 11 o'clock Friday morning, when the program for Christian education will be considered. Dr. R. H. Bennett, of Richmond, is present to take the leading part in that feature of conference work. Associated with Dr. Bennett will be Dr. Elam F. Dempsey, secretary of Christian education in north Georgia.

Under the influence of the special effort in Christian education the schools and colleges of the church in Georgia are enjoying a period of unprecedented activity. All schools are filled to overflowing with students, and all of them are enlarging their plants and equipment. Wesleyan college working on a $100,000 endowment and entirely new college plant, and has been placed in grade A of colleges. LaGrange college has also been placed in grade A. Young Harris and Reinhardt colleges are working on endowment funds of $100,000 each. Emory university is developing with rapidity, growing in popularity, strength and power. Its student enrollment represents 11 states and several foreign countries.

One feature of the conference work of Thursday was the unanimous vote of that body to approve the special effort for superannuate endowment, and the hearty vote for this conference to assume its quota of the $10,000,000 fund that will be raised within a period of five years. There was not a dissenting vote, the appearance of the slightest indifference to the matter on the part of either laymen or ministers.

Dr. Luther E. Todd, of St. Louis, secretary of the general board of finance, addressed the conference and gave an analysis of the entire plan of the superannuate endowment. At the first quarterly conference after adjournment of annual conference will be asked to assume its quota, amounting as minimum estimate of the combined assessments for support of pastor and presiding elder method of payment is left optional with the charge, but the whole amount assumed is to be paid within a period of five years.

It is not expected that any charges will fail to assume its small quota, but rather that many charges will voluntarily assume an amount in excess of that asked. The minimum expected to be raised is $10,000,000.

Dr. Lambeth's Talk.
Dr. W. A. Lambeth, of Gastonia, N. C., followed Dr. Todd's address with an inspiring address, during the entire hour the lower floor of the church auditorium was packed, with many standing. In the balcony were hundreds of others. Dr. Lambeth set forth the claims of the superannuate, the urgent duty of the church, and the needs of the retired veterans with a logic not to be withstood, an eloquence irresistible, and an appeal that reached the depths of all hearts, occasionally inducing a humorous allusion that provoked laughter.

Bishop Darlington concluded the presentation with a graphic portrayal of the stingy man who says the church is asking for too much money. The bishop related several brand-new jokes and convulsed the vast audience with laughter.

The following class of young men was admitted into the conference: Chester Ernest Yout, Joseph Simms Thraillkill, Carlos Alton Reese, Junius Alvin Langford, Frank Green, Clark Myers Haynes and Ralph Willett Wood. J. K. Kelly, W. L. Jolly, Edward Creager, O. J. Withrow and T. P. Dean continue as members of that class.

Young ministers who have been on trial for one year and were promoted to the class of the second year are: A. B. Elizer, H. A. King, R. J. Boyles, C. C. Olt.

During the discussion of the superannuate endowment fund the 48 superannuates of this conference occupied seats of honor. They listened intently to the stirring appeals made in their behalf, and were deeply moved by the unanimous and hearty approval given the work by the conference. Rev. S. P. Wiggins, who has been on the list of superannuates for a year, Thursday, was again given a place among the active preachers. He will resume work. Rev. J. O. Pettis also was returned to the active ranks.

Wiggins Appointed.
Announcement was made Thursday by the mission board that Mr. Wiggins would be appointed to be secretary of mission work in this conference, succeeding Rev. W. T. Hunnicutt, who will return to the pastoral work.

During the morning a telegram was received from Bishop Murray, stating that he is gradually improving every day.

The afternoon session was devoted to hearing Dr. S. A. Steel, who delivered a sermon on the subject, "The Christian Conception of the World Salvation." At night Dr. Steel lectured on "The Circuit Riders Francis Asbury Led."

The conference will continue sessions Friday and Saturday. On Sunday the visiting ministers will occupy the pulpits of the Methodist church in Atlanta and nearby towns, as well as those of some other denominations. A special memorial session will be held Sunday afternoon in honor of the men who have died during the year. The conference will conclude its work for this session Monday, hearing the new preaching appointments at the last hour.

PACKER REJECTS PLAN OF GOVERNMENT AUDIT

Chicago, November 22.—Swift & Co., Chicago packers, Thursday night formally declined to permit the department of agriculture in its offices with power at all times to examine the concern's books, accounts, papers and memoranda.

The company takes the position that, if the government has the power to enforce the demand, it would have the power to maintain government surveillance over citizens engaged in all lawful business, and claims that the government examination might easily be bribed by competitors to divulge trade secrets.

GIRL BADLY HURT BY AUTO TRUCK

Dolly Rakestraw, 12-year-old daughter of Officer R. A. Rakestraw, of 633 Lee street, was seriously injured in front of her home late Thursday afternoon by an automobile truck driven by an unidentified negro. Immediately after the accident the negro stopped the truck and fled according to George Rakestraw, brother of the injured girl.

The girl was returning from a pasture leading the family cow when the truck suddenly struck her and the cow, injuring them both. Severe bruises about the body and a lacerated scalp constituted the injuries suffered by the girl.

Police obtained the number of the truck and are endeavoring to locate the negro driver.

An accident reported to police by R. E. Flowers, of 144 Oak street, Decatur, occurred shortly after 9 o'clock Thursday night when Flowers' automobile stalled on the tracks of the Georgia railroad at Kirkwood and was struck by a freight train. The automobile was demolished and Flowers escaped possible death by leaping from the machine just before the locomotive struck it.

Beaufort Mayor Freed and Will Resume Office

R. V. Bray, mayor of Beaufort, S. C., was released from the federal penitentiary Thursday after serving five months of his one-year sentence. The sentence was imposed by President Coolidge and Mayor Bray sped away Thursday to his home town, where fellow citizens have remained faithful to him and have kept his position as chief executive of the town open during his confinement here.

The sentence was imposed after the mayor had been charged with assault and battery. A federal tax collector, who doubted the mayor's veracity in certain returns, was the complainant in the case.

Mayor Bray found that the road to freedom was not easy, as had been anticipated. Although his case was carried through various senators and congressmen to President Harding, the late president said that he could not interfere with the law. But after President Coolidge took office attempts at commutation of the mayor's sentence were renewed with happier results.

Mr. Bray stated that he had received letters from every one of the 12 jurymen who convicted him, telling him that they were sorry that they had been instrumental in his commitment to prison, but that they could not have done otherwise as the judge's charge was specific.

Mayor Bray will at once resume direction of the city's affairs, where he has three more years to fill of his term. He expressed nothing at the highest admiration for prison officials and was particularly enthusiastic about Deputy Warden L. J. Fletcher and Warden J. E. Dyche. "These men are masters at winning men's confidence," Mayor Bray said upon his release.

Mayor Bray was overjoyed at the idea of meeting his wife and children. "There's magic in that word home and that's where I am going," he said. "I will be my duty as mayor of Beaufort, for I must prove to my townspeople that their trust in me was not misplaced," he said.

Mayor Bray has large truck farming interests near Beaufort, which is a thriving city of 5,000.

TWO DEAD, THREE HURT IN BOILER EXPLOSION

Stantonsburg, N. C., November 22. J. E. Lane, fireman, was killed; James Thomas was so badly scalded that he died in a Wilson hospital, and three other men were painfully scalded when a boiler of a steam shovel on the Norfolk Southern railroad exploded near here late this afternoon. The cause of the explosion has not been determined. Lane's home was at Edenton and Thomas came from Jackson Springs.

The following class of young men was admitted into the conference: Chester Ernest Yout, Joseph Simms Thraillkill, Carlos Alton Reese, Junius Alvin Langford, Frank Green, Clark Myers Haynes and Ralph Willett Wood. J. K. Kelly, W. L. Jolly, Edward Creager, O. J. Withrow and T. P. Dean continue as members of that class.

and M. K. Marshall, of Greensboro, while the participants were in the courtroom of Judge J. B. Ridley, of the municipal court. His trial was set for Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. The alleged attack followed hearing of a trial in which Armistead sought to obtain possession of $300 deposited to his estranged wife's account in a local bank. He claimed that the money is his own, but lost the suit. Marshall and Walker appeared as witnesses in the case, testifying against Armistead. The attack came before the witnesses left the courtroom upon adjournment. Armistead left the building before the warrants for his arrest were served, but appeared before Judge T. O. Hathecock during the afternoon and made bond.

SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmothers' time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyneth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair. A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.—(adv.)

COBB AUTHORITIES PLAN EARLY TRIAL

Insure appearance for trial on the whisky charge. Morton refused to discuss the flogging further than to state that he had been Mrs. Holcombe's companion Friday night and that he had been whipped by the masked men she told about. He said that Solicitor General Wood had instructed him not to talk until the trial.

Announcing that he was preparing to push trial of each of the six indicted men, and to prosecute the flogging cases to the full extent of the law "regardless of the affiliation of any of the parties concerned," Solicitor Wood declared that "Cobb county is confronted by a very serious situation, as insidious as any now prevalent in the country."

The entire Verhine family moved suddenly Thursday morning from its Bank street residence in Smyrna to a more pretentious house at 145 Simpson street, Atlanta. The first information Smyrna neighbors had of the moving plans was Mrs. Verhine's offer of gifts of various household articles which the family decided not to carry to Atlanta.

Mrs. Verhine asserted that she had moved of her own volition and that no threats or warnings had been received from any sources. He is employed by the Atlanta Joint terminals and decided sometime ago, he said, to move to Atlanta instead of commuting to and from his work. Besides Mrs. Holcombe and her four-year-old daughter, the family includes Mr. and Mrs. Verhine, and four daughters younger than Mrs. Holcombe, one of them very pretty. Affairs at the new Verhine home in Atlanta, were being supervised Thursday night by a man named Whitfield who claimed to be a Pinkerton detective and working under personal direction of Solicitor Wood. Solicitor Wood said the man was not working under his direction. Members of the family said that Whitfield had been employed by Mr. Verhine. At the Cobb county courthouse Thursday it was stated that the Holcombe case is the first on record in Georgia in which a woman has actually been flogged by men. Some time ago a woman was forced to look while a man, with whom she was said to be intimate, was flogged but she was not molested. Mrs. Holcombe Thursday showed cause of the apparent skill of the surgeon. "Several persons must have attended Ream during the operation," deduced Dr. Orlando Scott, hospital surgeon who cared for Ream.

Dr. Edgar J. Goodspeed, secretary to the president, issued the following statement: "The University will strain every effort to see that justice is carried out. We do not pretend to prejudice the case, but if Mr. English or any other student is guilty of a crime, he will be glad to cooperate in finding and punishing the guilty persons."

The police have not formally asked the cooperation of the university as yet, but Lieutenant Grady, in charge of the investigation, insists: "If certain students of the University of Chicago would speak, I am convinced that we would clear up at once the mystery of this unspeakable operation."

Again many times men desperately in need of immediate hospital care for tuberculosis have in a few days after finally gaining admission been discharged from the hospitals because the untrained doctors in attendance at such hospitals have not recognized the seriousness of obvious lesions of tuberculosis.

"I have personally seen a good many men, immediately back from hospital, who have been discharged from one to three or four degrees above normal, caused solely by active tuberculosis," said a representative of the bureau office because of alleged tactics of the bureau here.

HATCHET NOT FOUND BY INVESTIGATORS

Savannah, Ga., November 22.—(By the Associated Press.)—"Brutal murder at the hands of unknown parties," was the verdict rendered by a coroner's jury here this afternoon following the discovery of the body of Mrs. Agnes M. Mudie and her two-year-old daughter, Dorris, when her husband and son returned from the city to their home located seven miles out from Savannah on the Isle of Hope road.

The coroner's jury decided that both victims met death when struck across the head with a hatchet. A razor used in slashing the woman's throat, was found broken off in her neck. The hatchet was used by the murderer to complete his crime. The child was killed by a blow over the head. The hatchet has not been found.

UNDERWOOD WILL ADDRESS SOLONS

that he probably would have been able to effect considerable constructive legislation at the approaching session of congress which convenes in December. President Coolidge, he declared, is following the program outlined by Harding and this session of congress will reveal the new president's ability to a great extent.

That he would bend his every effort to bring about reductions in federal taxes as outlined by Secretary Mellon, of the treasury department, was the assertion made by Senator Underwood, who declared that he favored any legislation that would lift the burden of national taxation from the people.

Experts Tax Reduction. "I firmly believe that congress will cut down on federal incomes and other taxes that had their inception during and after the war," declared Senator Underwood. "There certainly is no reason for collection of surplus taxes when there is no need for it in the treasury. I have heard very little opposition to this matter on the part of congressmen and senators, and while I may not favor the exact measure outlined by Secretary Mellon, I feel confident that his suggestion will be heeded and a reduction in taxes authorized by congress."

Senator Underwood will address the Georgia general assembly on the subject of "Our Government and Its Relation to the People." It is expected that he will give considerable information regarding the United States foreign policy and details of his recent trip in Europe.

A joint committee from the senate and house composed of Representative Elders, of Tattall, chairman; Representatives Milner, of Dodge, and W. R. Jones, of Meriwether, and Senators Phillips, Pace and Moore, and Senator Underwood upon his arrival and escorted him to the Hotel Ansley where he will remain until Saturday afternoon.

While here Senator Underwood will deliver an address before the regional conference of democratic women in session at the Ansley, his address to be delivered at 11 o'clock Saturday morning on the roof of the Ansley. The public is extended an invitation to attend.

$50,000,000 Fund Is Asked To Destroy Boll Weevil

BY PAUL JONES.

Proposing to treat the boll weevil as the enemy of the south's greatest natural monopoly and planning to initiate a battle royal against the pest in which the entire country will be called upon to take part, J. L. McCord, former official of Atlanta and Fulton county and one of its leading citizens, has given out a statement in which he outlined his plan of action.

The program Mr. McCord proposes to place before Senator Oscar Underwood, candidate for president, who will address the Georgia legislature Friday. It includes a call upon the federal government for a fund of $50,000,000 with which to defray the expenses of the anti-boll weevil campaign. The plan also contemplates calling a national convention to be held in Atlanta to be attended by leading figures in the entire business world of the United States to devise ways and means for destroying the insect that has brought about such startling changes in the agricultural and industrial situation of the south.

"The cotton crop," said Mr. McCord, "is the great natural monopoly of our great nation, and as such it should receive the support of our government. What other nation would permit an insect or anything else to ravage its most precious possessions as the weevil is destroying the southern cotton crop without bringing to bear every governmental resource against it?"

"As no country on the globe can produce cotton in competition with us and because of the fact that this fibre is looked upon as the most universally needed agricultural product bringing the world by any nation, the citizens of America should consider it a national resource, and as such they should insist upon federal protection against enemies and governmental aid to those who produce it."

"Another phase of the question that should be given more thought," continued Mr. McCord, "is that of the off-projected idea of substituting diversification of crops as an alternative for the production of the crop that should make our people rich beyond their dreams. Why should we propose to adopt practice and introduce crops that can be raised in any other section to take the place of the product upon which we have a monopoly, thereby losing its value to us, when we might, with the proper

HOGANSVILLE MILL IN CONSOLIDATION

Boston, November 22.—Plans for the formation of the New England Southern Mills to consist of a consolidation of a number of mills in South Carolina and Georgia with the plants of the International Cotton Mills in Georgia, Maine, Massachusetts and Canada have been approved by the directors of the International Cotton Mills. The combined mills have 586,000 spindles and will employ about 6,500 operatives.

The Southern mill to be joined to the International group are those for the acquisition of which Lockwood, Greene & Co., of this city, have been negotiating recently and all the companies in the combination will be managed by this firm. The new plants include the Lancaster Cotton-mills, Lancaster, S. C.; Fort Mill Manufacturing company, Fort Mill, S. C.; Eureka Cotton mills and Springstein mills, Chester, S. ORDINANCE SEEKS TO STOP BURNING OF 'FIERY CROSSES'

Atlantic City, N. J., November 22.—An ordinance forbidding "the public burning or decoration of any symbol or device of any religious creed or denomination" was passed Thursday by the city council, aimed to halt the burning of "fiery crosses" by the Ku Klux Klan.

The commissioners also enacted a statute prohibiting the assemblage of masked persons. Second and third readings will be necessary before the provisions become laws.

Expect Decision In Kansas Ouster Of Klan on Dec. 8

Topeka, Kan., November 22.—Final decision in the state's ouster suit started against the Ku Klux Klan a year ago, is expected to be handed down by the Kansas supreme court on December 8, it became known today. Following the hearing of the arguments this afternoon, Commissioner S. M. Brewster stated that he will file his findings in the case in a few days, thus enabling the court to render final decision on its next monthly decision day—December 8.

In his findings of fact, Commissioner Brewster is expected to express his opinion as to whether or not the Klan is deemed to be violating state law because it is operating without a charter in this state. It does not necessarily follow, however, that the supreme court's decision will conform with the commissioner's. Because of the immense amount of evidence involved in the suit, Mr. Brewster was appointed by the supreme court to hear the case and report to the court.

Captain John F. Rhodes, argued the state's case today, contending that the Klan does not come under the provisions of the law which permit philanthropic and patriotic organizations to operate in Kansas without a state charter. Attorneys W. L. Wood and John S. Dean, argued that it does.

(Sleep On, Fair Lady) (Pagliaro-Tosti) In Italian		Number List Price
Berceuse (Lullaby) (Cicchitoni) In Italian	Giuseppe de Luca	955 $1.50
Those who seek beautiful and perfect singing will frankly enthuse over this baritone record. The Tosti song is a true Italian serenade, and the Cradle song is a gem.
Adagio (Mozart-Friedberg) Violin Solo	Mischa Elman
German Dance (Dittus) (2) Gavotte (Gosse)	Mischa Elman	6424 2.00
This beautiful adagio, bowed throughout, almost without embellishments, is presented by Elman with exquisite sympathy. Two familiar dances, ancient, quaint, combine with it.

Sacred Songs

(Oh Saviour, Hear Me (from "Ode")	Charles T. Tittmann
(Be Thou With Me <td>Charles T. Tittmann <td>19141 .75</td> </td>	Charles T. Tittmann <td>19141 .75</td>	19141 .75
The first Victor record by Charles Trowbridge Tittmann, basso—Princetonian, Harvardian, lawyer, soldier and student of letters, and a wholly American-trained artist.

Light Vocal Selections

(Indiana Moon <td>Claire Brookhurst-Lewis James <td>19173 .75</td> </td>	Claire Brookhurst-Lewis James <td>19173 .75</td>	19173 .75
This record introduces not one, but two new Victor artists—Della Baker, soprano, and Claire Brookhurst, contralto. Both artists have appeared with symphony organizations.
(Out There in the Sunshine With You <th>Henry Burr</th> <th></th>	Henry Burr
(You Didn't Care When You Broke My Heart <td>Elliott Shaw <td>19176 .75</td> </td>	Elliott Shaw <td>19176 .75</td>	19176 .75
Two of the now world-famous "heart-song" recordings by Victor artists. Both are tuneful and well sung.
(It Ain't Gonna Rain No Mo' With Ukulele <th>Wendell Hall</th> <th></th>	Wendell Hall
(Red-Headed Music Maker With Ukulele <th>Wendell Hall</th> <td>19171 .75</td>	Wendell Hall	19171 .75
First Victor record by this nationally-known singer, comedian and composer of popular songs. He gives two of his own compositions, and is a "whole show" in himself.

Dance Records

(Old-Fashioned Love—Fox Trot	Arthur Gibbs and His Gang
(Charleston—Medley Fox Trot <td></td> <td>19165 .75</td>		19165 .75
Arthur Gibbs and his "gang"—really an excellent orchestra of dance musicians—have two fetching and timely fox trots.

DEMOCRATS OPEN ATLANTA OFFICE

Headquarters for the national democratic victory campaign in Georgia has been opened in the Kimball house, N. M. Patten, of Abbeville, is in charge of the Georgia campaign, and he will direct organization of democratic victory clubs in all parts of the state, in accordance with plans of the democratic national committee.

These clubs are being organized all over the United States, under the direction of the democratic national committee at Washington, for the purpose of promoting the candidacy of the democratic nominee for president in 1924.

"It should be kept in mind," said Mr. Patten, "that this work is not in the interest of any candidate for the nomination. The purpose is to prepare to elect whoever is nominated. No good democrat should assist regardless of who his choice may be for the nomination."

Mr. Patten further stated that a considerable number of these clubs have already been organized in Georgia, and many others are in process of being formed; but there are still a number of cities and counties that have not started to organize.

Mr. Patten is undertaking to select good, active democrats to serve as presidents of the clubs to be formed in these unorganized counties, and is calling upon the legislators to help him in their respective counties.

Next week it is planned to put on a statewide "drive" for new clubs, and for new members of the clubs already formed. Atlanta, Savannah, Augusta and Macon are to put on simultaneous "drives" for members, each striving to secure the largest club in the state.

Club members make a small contribution toward defraying the necessary and legitimate expenses of the democratic campaign for president in 1924.

"This is the democratic way to finance a democratic campaign," declared Mr. Patten, "and it is expected that every real democrat will join one of these clubs. Club members are pledged democrats," he said.

The state headquarters is located on the first floor of the Kimball house, adjoining the lobby, and all democrats are urged to call and assist in this work "for the good of the party of the people."

No More Gray Hair - Says Science

Wonderful Clean, Colorless Liquid Restores Original Color Results in a Week

Science again has scored a triumph in the discovery of a very remarkable liquid known as Kolor-Bak. If you are gray, just apply this liquid to the hair and scalp and your hair will soon take on the actual color it had in the past. Not a trace of grayness will remain.

Kolor-Bak comes in the form of a clean and colorless liquid, containing properties which quickly restore the lost color to the hair and give it renewed vigor. And note that the one preparation is for all colors of hair. No special solution required for each color—no samples of hair required.

You will find also that with Kolor-Bak the hair has the same shade throughout. It does not appear streaked, faded or "died."

Every scientist, every physician, knows that gray hair is hair that has ceased to receive its normal supply of coloring matter or pigment from certain tiny cells (called follicles or papillae) in the scalp, because these cells have become inactive from illness, shock of some kind, scalp disease, dandruff, infection, neglect of the hair, or lack of circulation, etc. But no matter what the cause of the grayness, it is simply amazing to see how it disappears when Kolor-Bak is used. It is a real substitute for the natural pigmentation.

MISTAH SPEAKAH

By RALPH T. JONES

Mistah Speakah—

Move we go into executive session—

During the course of debate on the income tax question it has been noted that many of the speakers quote the Bible in their arguments for or against an income tax, supporting or opposing a sales tax, favoring or deprecating a classification tax, upholding or condemning the ad valorem system.

Representative Wimberly, of Laurens, told anew the story of the man given ten talents, the man given five, and the man given but one. Just what was his exact application in argument on the question before the house, could not be determined, although his speech was followed most carefully.

However, in telling just how good other members of the house are as Biblical students, let's leave out the reference to tax. Leave it to you, dear reader, to fix the quotation as you see fit.

First, Representative Cornington, of Colquitt, quoted "And from him that hath not shall be taken even that which he hath." You see the applicability of that, don't you? If you are a farmer, you probably do.

Then Representative "Bill Biffen" Saffire, of Savannah, referred to the crossing of the Red Sea by the children of Israel. He did refer to "em as 'Israhelites,'" but that is an excusable error, particularly in a newspaper man who depends on the proof-reader to "catch his bulls" before press time.

Another member said "Whence Cometh the Cry?" That sounds Biblical, whether it is or not.

And, Representative Harrell, of Stewart county, said "Sufficient Unto the Day is the Evil Thereof."

Which, being the case beyond peradventure of a doubt—

Congressman Wright Sponsors Movement For Ford Plant Offer

Congressman William C. Wright, of Georgia, has not given up hope for the eventual success of the fight in congress for acceptance of Henry Ford's offer for Muscle Shoals, Representative Camp, of Covington, state assemblyman, stated last night.

Mr. Camp called attention to a resolution recently passed by the Georgia house urging acceptance of the Ford offer.

"Mr. Wright is a member of the military affairs committee of the house of representatives, with which Martin B. Madden, of Illinois, has been leading the fight for the acceptance of the Ford offer," said Mr. Camp.

"Mr. Ford, in his original offer, stated that he would not consider the purchase of the Muscle Shoals property unless the whole property was included, thus including the Wilson dam. Since summer the war department has sold the Gorgas steam plant, and those friends of the Ford offer, farmers generally, and the people of the south who have seen in the purchase of this property by Mr. Ford a real economic blessing for this section, have felt down-hearted, and the news that Mr. Ford is still interested in the matter comes as a very pleasant encouragement."

"Congressmen Wright and Madden propose a resolution in congress authorizing the erection of another steam plant in New York or Gorgas plant, and the acceptance of the Ford offer immediately."

METHODIST LAYMEN WILL MEET TONIGHT

Laymen attending the North Georgia conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, in Atlanta this week, will meet at a banquet in the dining room of the Wesley Memorial church at 7:30 o'clock tonight.

This announcement was made Thursday by Rush Burton, of Lavonia, lay leader of the North Georgia conference, who stated that J. M. Way, secretary of the general board of lay activities, with headquarters in Nashville, would be present and address the meeting. Mr. Burton, who arrived in the city Wednesday, has arranged all details for the banquet, at which all laymen attending the conference are expected.

Mr. Burton also announced that there would be a meeting of the conference board on lay activities at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR M'DADE SUNDAY

Funeral services for John W. McDade, of 83 Beecher street, widely-known railroad man who died Thursday morning at a private sanitarium, will be held Saturday afternoon at 10:30 o'clock at the chapel of Harry G. Poole, Rev. S. W. Reid will officiate. Burial will be at West View.

Mr. McDade was born in Chambers, moving to Atlanta 35 years ago and becoming a conductor on the Central of Georgia railroad. A month ago he resigned due to failing health.

He was a deacon of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church and was a member of local lodge No. 150 railroad conductors. Besides his wife he is survived by a grandson, J. Howard McDade, and a sister, Mrs. N. J. Chambers.

GEORGIA CHEMISTS WILL HEAR BASSETT

The Georgia section of the American Chemical society will hold its annual banquet at the Wincock hotel at 7 o'clock tonight. The principal speaker for the occasion will be Dr. Victor H. Bassett, director of the Savannah board of health. His subject will be "Industrial Hygiene in Relation to Public Health and State Medicine."

Dr. Bassett is a sanitarian of national reputation, and members of the chemical society, city and state boards of health and others interested are invited to attend and are asked to phone J. F. Sellers, chairman, Oglethorpe university, or E. B. Lockhart, secretary, of Law & Company.

NEW DEPOT PETITION HEARING POSTPONED

Hearing of the petition for a new depot at Dalton before the state public service commission, has been postponed from November 27 to January 22, it was announced at the office of the commission on Friday. The postponement was made on account of the serious illness of one of the counsel for the petitioners. Dalton is on the line of the N. C. & S. E. and the town is asking for a new depot.

Women Challenge Men In Drive for Oglethorpe

A challenge of the woman's board of Oglethorpe university was flung at the board of trustee-founders of that institution Thursday, when Mrs. H. G. Carnes stated that the women would raise more money in this city for the building and endowment campaign recently launched than the men. The challenge was promptly accepted by Edgar Watkins, chairman of the board of trustee-founders between the two was started.

Mrs. Carnes was speaking in behalf of the women's board of Oglethorpe university at the regular monthly luncheon of the trustee-founders at the Wincock hotel, in the absence of Mrs. Katherine Conner, president, and Mrs. Albert J. Thornton, Sr., first vice president of that body, who were prevented by illness from being present.

Mrs. J. Cheston King has been elected chairman of our soliciting committee," said Mrs. Carnes, "and that committee will be composed of between 100 and 200 members of our board, each member having at her goal the raising of $1,000 in Atlanta."

More than $50,000 was announced by Mrs. Carnes as having been subscribed to the campaign, notwithstanding the fact that some delay has been occasioned through other activities.

"This brings the total subscribed near the $500,000 mark," said Mrs. Watkins, "and $25,000 of which was recently pledged by the woman's board of the university. We have several very large gifts in sight which we expect to make public before the campaign has gotten fully under way."

Dr. Thornwell Jacobs, president of the university, expressed his appreciation of the wonderful co-operation of the school's woman's board and board of founders, stating that "the splendid gift of the woman's board was one of the finest things to happen in the history of the college." He announced a number of new members of the board of trustee-founders. They are: Professor Willis A. Sutton, Julian Boehm, J. H. Byrley, J. L. Morrison and Milton W. Bell.

Immediately following the luncheon, Mrs. King called a meeting of the women present, all of whom volunteered their services for the campaign, and plans were outlined for their prosecution.

The meeting was presided over by Mr. Watkins and music was furnished by the university orchestra, the dining hall being beautifully decorated by the woman's board.

No Severe Winter Likely, Says Atlanta Forecaster

BY PIERRE VAN PAASEN.

The whole United States is under a cloud. This, however, must be construed literally and not figuratively, for although there are some nebulous formations hiding the sun for a few days, economically and industrially the country still stands head and shoulders above the rest of the world.

The cloudy condition is general, said C. F. Hermann, official weather prognosticator Thursday. "There are no violent features anywhere. No storms, no heavy rain-falls or snowfalls, here and there nothing to speak of. Winter seems to be holding off for a while longer. That is exactly as I had expected. I do not know we are going to have a severe winter."

Mr. Von Hermann explained that he did not have any definite basis for his statement, but said that he had formed this opinion on years of observation and close study of the severity of seasons and their relative frequency.

"I have noticed that real severe winters hit us about once every fifteen or twenty years. They don't come any oftener than that. Now the last severe winter we had here in the south, and that one was general all over the United States and, in fact, over the whole world, was 1917."

"From years of observation I would say, then, that there will not be another one due for several years to come. At least not for five years, perhaps."

Wednesday a northern storm was centering over Lake Huron, with a trough of low pressure extending southwest to Texas. A new area of high pressure with colder weather, has appeared in the northwest. They the chance of rain was very slight, but this situation changed Thursday morning.

"The southern states had high temperatures. Atlanta had climbed from 44° Wednesday to 50° with a highest temperature Thursday of 62°. In Chicago it was thirty and in

2 ARE CONVICTED IN POSTAL THEFT

Constitution Bureau.

T. J. Bryson, Mgr., Phone 184. Rome, Ga., November 22.—(Special.)—John D. Harris and Evans Miller, the latter a youth of some 17 years, were convicted this morning of robbing the postoffice at Aragon, Ga., and sentenced by Judge Samuel H. Shibley in the U. S. District court, to serve two years in the federal penitentiary and to pay fines of $200 each.

The trial of the two men, which began yesterday afternoon consumed half of this morning's session of the court. The evidence against them was largely circumstantial, but the jury was out only a short while.

The remainder of the day was taken up largely in the trial of "moon-shiners" cases, although two cases of transporting stolen automobiles from one state to another were called. Seventeen "moon-shiners" from Haralson county pleaded guilty and the majority of them were fined $15 only, when it developed that they had previously been fined in the Haralson superior court. Judge Shibley warned the defendants, however, that if they appeared in his court again on similar charges, they would be given a year in the penitentiary without the alternative of paying a fine.

(Print name and address plainly in blanks above.)

Two little Atlanta girls are among those who have just been awarded these magnificent dolls, the finest made by an American manufacturer. They won "Betty Ann" in ONLY ONE DAY'S TIME.

"Anyone can win---it's easy," was what they said. Today is the day for YOU to win one of these splendid dollies offered ABSOLUTELY FREE OF CHARGE by The Daily and Sunday Constitution.

Miss "Betty Ann" is two feet high. She wants to come and live with you. The Constitution has 500 of these "dolls supreme," and any person may get in the game and win one without the expenditure of a single penny.

"Betty Ann's" regular retail price would be at least $10, and she is the finest American-made doll that The Constitution could procure under a special purchase. But money can't buy her. Every one of the 500 beauties is here for some industrious little girl who is willing to get out and win a doll of her own.

All you have to do is to get eight NEW subscriptions of 20 weeks each to The Daily and Sunday Constitution — and the whole family and all your neighborhood friends will be glad to help you win. And when you win "Betty Ann" you will have the supreme toy of all your life. She is the best that can be purchased, and she was bought specially for this occasion.

"Betty Ann" Dolls are the most beautiful, durable, life-like dolls ever seen in Atlanta. Everything about them, from their dainty white lace bonnets and lovely hair, to their real patent-leather slippers and mercerized stockings, will delight you.

"Betty Ann" Dolls have real hair and the prettiest complexions imaginable. They are unbreakable and very beautiful. Their eyes are guaranteed never to fall out, no matter how much they wink or shut. You must meet her to know how really beautiful and wonderful she is.

"Betty Ann" not only goes to sleep nicely, closing both her eyes and wakes up calling "mama" as a real baby does, but she can also be made to wink and blink at the will of her little mother. This achievement is possible only by the patented construction of the eyes, which we were fortunate to get at a high cost, as we want to give our little friends all the pleasure that could possibly be gotten out of a dolly.

"Betty Ann" is stuffed all through, body and limbs, with pure, white, new cotton, which gives her that pleasant, soft, cuddly feeling which every little girl likes in her dolly, as it reminds her of her little sister or brother. We have taken great pains with our manufacturer to insure sanitation all through, workmanship and material.

"Betty Ann's" face can be washed with soap and water, her hair can be combed and brushed, and you can keep her beautiful and cheerful all the time.

"Betty Ann" calls her mama with such a human, child-like voice that you can fool anybody to believe that it is a real baby calling for her mother. She will make an ideal Christmas present. Five hundred of the dolls are in the warehouse now awaiting delivery to the lucky little mothers who win them. Act now before they are gone — get yours — they won't last long.

Fill in the entry list printed on this page and mail or bring it to The Constitution. You will then receive a subscription book to circulate among your friends and obtain the necessary eight NEW subscriptions to The Daily and Sunday Constitution.

Any NEW subscription in Atlanta and its suburbs and in any town or city where The Constitution has an established carrier service will count. (On rural routes and small towns without regular carrier service The Constitution has a special doll offer, particulars of which will be supplied upon request.)

By a NEW subscription is meant a subscription to a person who has not been a regular subscriber of The Constitution for the past 30 days. There is no money collection on your part — and "Betty Ann" will be delivered to you promptly and safely.

SCOTT, NORRIS CO. IS UNDER PROBE

New York, November 22.—An investigation of the bankrupt cotton brokerage firm of Scott, Norris and company was begun by the district attorney's office today after complaints had been received from D. D. McElven, cotton planter of Frankfort, La., who said he had claims against the concern for $8,000. Mr. McElven traveled 1,600 miles to New York to tell his story to the prosecuting authorities.

Threats of prosecution against the firm which failed early this month were made by Assistant District Attorney Richard C. Gibbs, who also urged that federal officials determine whether the defunct brokerage concern had violated the postal laws in soliciting orders. The attorney general's office, it was learned, was seeking to serve members of the firm with papers in an action to restrain them from doing business again in this state.

Mr. McElven in his complaint said three weeks ago he ordered all the cotton which the firm was carrying for him sold, and that the brokers wired back a confirmation of the sale. He failed to receive his money, however, he asserted, and later was notified that creditors of the firm were combining to avert a bankruptcy proceeding. Before he could reach New York the company failed.

The cotton planter told the district attorney that he began trading with Scott, Norris and company in September, 1922, after he had received letters offering to handle his orders for a $4 deposit on 100 bales of cotton on overnight trading and a $2 deposit on day transactions. Prior to March, McElven said, he had done $2,000 worth of business with the company, and had been paid back all money invested plus his trading profits. When the market began to advance last spring, he said, he started trading on a larger scale and when the firm failed he had invested $2,300, while profits swelled his claim to $3,600.

The district attorney's office ordered the receiver to hold for examination all records of the firm. It also began investigation of a report that a man not officially connected with the concern had left the city coincident with the disappearance of $200,000 of the firm's assets.

Thrash To Face Slaying Charge In Court Today

Dawson, Ga., November 22.—(Special.)—Trial of Enoch Thrash on a charge of murder in connection with the killing of Judge J. H. Kelley will be started here Friday morning. Thrash, a white farmer, residing several miles southeast of Dawson, yesterday was indicted by the Terrell county grand jury. Thrash shot and killed Judge Kelley, an aged and well known citizen of Herod, a village five miles south of Dawson, Monday morning.

The killing occurred in the public road at Brandwine branch, and was witnessed by J. T. Coker, of Herod, who is the chief witness in the case. His feeling was aroused sometime before the tragedy when he learned that Thrash had planned to move a negro tenant from the Kelley plantation. It is claimed the negro owed Kelley on account which had not been settled when Thrash went to the Kelley plantation and moved the negro tenant. Kelley sometime prior to the shooting and warned Thrash not to come on the farm, it is said. Thrash and the tenant, in wagons, were on their way to the Gibson place, operated by Thrash, when Judge Kelley accompanied by Coker overtook them.

It was near Brandwine branch that the shooting took place. According to the chief witness, Judge Kelley got out of his buggy with pistol in hand, and ordered the negro to stop, which he did. Judge Kelley, it is said, began talking to the negro about the account, when Thrash ordered the negro to drive on. He started, but again was ordered to stop by Judge Kelley. Thrash then spoke to Judge Kelley, and told him not to raise his hand, it was said. Then Thrash began firing on Judge Kelley, who fell dead in the road.

ATLANTA HEARING UPON RAIL RATES SET FOR JAN. 3

Washington, November 22.—Additional dates were announced today for interstate commerce commission hearings in the investigation into railroad rates of grain and grain products. On January 3 the commission's representatives will take testimony at Atlanta; on January 15 at Chicago, and on January 21 in Washington. Hearing dates for the west previously have been announced.

SENATOR RALSTON DECLINES ANSWER

Indianapolis, Ind., November 22.—Senator Samuel M. Ralston, in a letter today to Jacob Morgan, president of a local branch of the American Unity League, replied to questions propounded by the latter regarding the K. K. K. and questions associated with that organization.

Three of the questions referred to Senator Ralston's views regarding Senator-elect Mayfield, of Texas, who was said to have been supported by the Ku Klux Klan. The first asked if he regarded Mayfield as worthy of a seat in the senate. The second if he regarded the Texas man's membership in the Klan as consistent with the laws and constitution of the United States, and the third if he will vote for the seating of Senator Mayfield when the question comes before the senate. Senator Ralston replied in part as follows:

Would Be Unfair.
"The above questions all call for my opinion on matters which I assume you believe will come before me after I have taken my oath of office, to be passed upon by me in a quasi-judicial way, and if you are right in your assumption, I am going to do you the honor of saying that your sense of justice is such that you will not, on further reflection, want me to prejudice, as a judge, any man's case that shall be submitted to me for a hearing. For me to do so would, of course, be a gross violation of official duty and would render me unfit to hold a seat in the senate."

In answer to the questions as to whether he is a member of the Ku Klux Klan or any affiliated organization, the senator said he is not and never had been.

Coolidge Is Asked To Attend Event At War Memorial

Washington, November 22.—Gutzon Borglum, the sculptor, and a committee representing the Stone Mountain Memorial association, invited President Coolidge today to attend the unveiling December 19 of the first group of figures being sculptured on the face of Stone Mountain near Atlanta, Ga., and asked the president to recommend the coinage of a special 50-cent piece commemorating the unveiling.

The proposed coin would bear on one side the likeness of President Harding, the first president to formally endorse the Stone Mountain memorial, and on the other face a duplicate of the completed group of figures on the mountain.

Mr. Coolidge took under advisement the invitation, although expressing doubt as to whether he would be able to accept it and referred the committee's proposal for a special coin to the senate and house committees having to do with coinage of money.

POSSE MISTAKEN FOR BANDIT PARTY SHOT BY SHERIFF

Terre Haute, Ind., November 22.—Four members of a volunteer posse organized to search for supposed bank robbers, were shot and seriously wounded by a posse headed by Sheriff Herman Weber, of Clay county, in a gun battle at Cory, southeast of this city at 1 o'clock this morning. The wounded men are Claude Lloyd, Thomas Collins, Joseph Van Deeren and Paul Willis.

Sheriff Weber received a call about midnight from near Cory to the effect that an automobile party in that vicinity was acting in a suspicious manner. With a force of deputies the sheriff started for the scene. In the meantime the vicinity of Cory had been aroused and a volunteer posse formed.

As the sheriff's party approached the village it was met by the citizens' posse. Believing them to be bandits, the citizens posse called upon them to halt. Sheriff Weber, thinking he had been ambushed by bandits, opened fire with a sawed-off shotgun. The volunteer posse returned the fire but none of the sheriff's party was injured.

Calumet Baking Powder

is called "Best by Test" because actual baking tests are made right in the big Calumet factories—the largest of their kind on earth. Master bakers and a renowned domestic science expert make these tests which protect the quality and uniformity of Calumet.

Calumet is called "the World's Greatest Baking Powder" because it is used by more housewives—more chefs—more railroads—more restaurants—more hotels than any other brand.

Calumet is called the "Economy Baking Powder" because no other brand on the market will produce bakings at such a low cost. Its dependable and unfailing action means no loss of time, money or materials.

Calumet is called for in thousands of stores daily because a better leavener cannot—and is not made—because a large can contains full 16 ounces and some brands come in 12 ounce cans—once tried it is always used.

EVERY INGREDIENT USED OFFICIALLY APPROVED BY U. S. FOOD AUTHORITIES

Stewart's Foot Comfort Dept.

Do the Structure of the Human Foot

Thousands of persons have been sadly mistaken that tired, burning, aching, tender feet are due to pinching or rubbing of their shoes; and other severe pains, aches and cramps in their feet, legs, knees, thighs and hips are often wrongly attributed to rheumatism, sciatica, etc.

At the first signs of any cramp, aches or pains starting from the foot should be carefully looked after. The Wizard Light-Foot Arch Appliances are so scientifically constructed that all of these foot conditions can be restored to normal only through scientific adjustment of the little overlapping pockets, so arranged as to give support to any distorted or misaligned condition in the foot.

$10 to $300 For Emergencies

MY OWN VIEWS ON THE SUBJECT

If I needed $10 to $300 in an emergency, I

- would not want to borrow it from friend or employer.
- would not want to borrow from a relative.
- would not want to ask anyone to endorse for me.
- would not want to be under obligation to any one.
- would want to borrow it from someone who made a business of lending money.
- would be willing to pay a reasonable amount for the use of the money I borrowed.
- would consider ONLY a firm that was long established in my community.

The Citizens Loan Company, licensed by and bonded to the State and under the supervision of the State Banking Department, is well and favorably known in the community, a reliable firm that makes a business of lending money at lawful rates and offers a service that is practical.

Should you need money now or at any time do not fail to come to us.

Toronto Man Here Examining Local Trolley Conditions

A. G. Grout, public relations representative of the Toronto transportation commission, arrived in Atlanta Thursday to investigate street railway conditions in the city. Mr. Grout is making a tour of the principal cities of the continent and came to Atlanta after having made a survey of transportation methods in Boston, New York and Baltimore and will go from here to New Orleans, Dallas, Chicago and leading western cities.

"I had to recast my whole conception of the south. It is my first trip down below the Mason-Dixon line and I was struck with the signs of solid prosperity that I observed everywhere. It certainly is a sign of progress when you see highways being constructed, bridges and factories being built and all of such substantial and enduring group," he said.

Mr. Grout will confer while in Atlanta with officials of the Georgia Railway and Power company, including Frank L. Butler and L. K. Starr, of the public relations department of the Atlanta transportation system. The Toronto transportation commission is inaugurating a new progressive policy along the most modern lines and for that reason Mr. Grout and several of his associates are on tour in the United States, studying transportation questions.

Mr. Grout was formerly assistant city editor of The Globe and has a wide experience on western Canadian papers.

SCHOOL TEACHERS CALLED TO MEET THIS AFTERNOON

Members of the Atlanta School Teachers' association were called by President Scott Thursday to meet in special session at 3:15 o'clock this afternoon at the Commercial high school auditorium to consider the present lack of funds for their November and December pay checks.

The special committee appointed Wednesday to ask the Atlanta banks to reconsume the application for a loan of $45,000 with which to pay school salaries for the remainder of this year reported Thursday night that its efforts to interest the bankers in the advance had been unsuccessful.

MELLON'S EFFORTS TO ADJUST INCOME TAX LAW INDORSER

Resolutions heartily approving the effort being made by Secretary Mellon, of the treasury department, to adjust income tax laws of the federal government have been adopted by the directors of the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce.

"The secretary's proposals for relief to the wage-earning and salaried class will be especially gratifying to that large body of taxpayers," the resolutions stated.

Copies of the resolutions were sent to Secretary Mellon and William R. Green, acting chairman of the congressional ways and means committee.

ARNOLD MAKES TALK ON RENTAL VALUES

Methods of determining rental values of real estate, particularly business property in the central district, were discussed Thursday by Howard Arnold, manager of the renting department of the Adair Realty & Trust Co., before the Atlanta Real Estate board at its weekly luncheon.

Mr. Arnold spoke on practically every phase of the renting business and imparted a store of information which he has gained during his 20 years' experience with the Adair company.

Pretty Girls Will Feature "Kirmess" at Auditorium

Everything is in readiness for the kirmess, society extravaganza, which will be presented at city auditorium tonight for the first time in Atlanta since 1910, under the personal direction of "Gene" Trader, who assisted F. M. Agostini in its last presentation here. It is being staged under the auspices of the Atlanta Woman's club, which will devote the profits from the undertaking to the club auditorium building fund.

An attractive part of this spectacular attraction will be the Hawaiian dance, in which girls from Woodberry hall will take part. The scene is placed on that "Wha-cha-ma-calli island," and the solo part of it is rendered by Charles Lyons. The South sea island maidens will be dressed in native costumes, the group including Misses Nancy Strubling, Genevieve Hopkinson, Dorothy Keelin, Juanita Daniel, Margaret Hardy, Virginia Morey, Harriet Furse, Auvergne Harper, Catherine Paxton, Beverly Dreka, Martha Yarbrough, Sarah Whitehead, Dorothy Mahoney and Roberta King.

Perhaps the most elaborate part of the program is the closing scene, the "Nine o'Clock Review." It is made up of eight different parts, as follows:

1. "That Red Headed Gal"—Miss Margaret McPherson and the following T-h boys: R. M. Woodside, D. L. Loda, Wallace Kirkpatrick, A. J. Shelton, M. H. Yule, Geo. L. Lowman, J. W. Morrow, T. S. Lewis, J. W. Grant and Walter Jones.

CENTENARY ELEVEN WILL ARRIVE IN CITY TODAY

Petrels Hope To Upset Dope and Win Over Team Coached by Bo McMillin

Shreveport, La., November 22.—Coach "Bo" McMillin, of Centenary college, left early today with twenty-four men for Atlanta, Ga., where they play the Oglethorpe college football team next Saturday.

BY BILL MORROW.
With the Oglethorpe-Centenary battle only a day and a fraction off, the belief that the Stormy Petrels will defeat the colorful McMills has rapidly spread over the Peachtree institute, and an honest-to-goodness victory is expected by the Petrels' supporters. The Oglethorpe representatives have figured in a number of defeats by close scores and the like, but this time the Petrel squad is pointed towards a win over its celebrated rival and the Centenary lads had best appear in full war array, ready for a hectic scrap.

The Centenary outfit is scheduled to arrive in this locality some time this morning and will probably engage in a short workout this afternoon at Grant field. "Bo" McMillin is bringing a force numbering 24 to this city and the purpose of this said invasion is to put a crimp in the Stormy Petrels—naturally.

"Bo" has a great scoring machine, granted, but whether it will be able to run roughshod over the Oglethorpe eleven is another problem—one that will not be solved until the usual 60 minutes of play are over Saturday.

Work On Defense.
The Stormy Petrels have worked hard in an endeavor to devise a defense that will stop the Centenary backs and also, they have been formulating plans that, if realized, will run over the Gentlemen's defense. The Petrels are in great shape, both physically and mentally, for their battle Saturday with the visitors. Backed by a knowledge that they have accounted for the over-turning of the dope bucket on their own hook this season, they have also the belief that their backs will be able to find flaws in the Centenary defense.

Maurer, though being a marked man, is expected to show his heels to the opposition on more than one occasion and "Frog" Gordy is another speed merchant that the Centenary lads had best watch.

In little "Natty" Cameron the Petrels have an excellent field general. "Natty" figures very little in the advancing of the ball, but his ability to run the team correctly is well recognized and several quarterbacks, that are not slow in shifting their feet, have side-stepped to give coins.

this freshman the job of leading the team.

Due to the late injury of Bob Kilgore, Ed David will likely be the coaching staff's pick for the fullback berth. Ed is a veteran on the Petrels' machine and his plunging carries with it considerable kick. He originally came for one of the end berths but was shifted to the backfield following injuries to a number of the Oglethorpe backs.

In Maurer, Campbell, Gordy and David the Petrel cause has several fast steppers that are expected to equalize the Gentlemen's edge by their extra poundage. Bo's line averages past the 200 mark in avoidances and the Petrels are hoping that speed will finally bring the laurels to their side of the ledger.

Pastboards for the little fringes starting at 2 o'clock between the Oglethorpe hopes and the Centenary lads are going fast and a record crowd is expected to witness the Petrels' attempts against the Gentlemen. Tickets are on sale at Marshall & Reynolds.

TIGER FLOWERS MAY MEET SIKI

Nothing more nor less than a fight with Battling Siki, the famous negro pugilist, awaits Tiger Flowers, Atlanta's black ace, if he can only eliminate the Georgia Robinson obstacle Tuesday night in the auditorium.

Promoter Walk Miller is now laying plans to stage Flowers and Siki right here in Atlanta if his southpaw change shows enough stuff in his comeback bout to entitle him to a crack at the widely-heralded Senegalese.

For two months Flowers has been idle—and it may be that he is not just now the great fighter that he was, before suffering the injury to his right hand.

Feeling Bitter.
However, if the wound member shows no effects of the break, and Tiger can swat Robinson with all the elat with which he tattooed the body and face of Jamaica Kid, or lay Robinson low, then he is assured of a meeting with Siki.

A bout of that rank would certainly pack the auditorium—and it is for that reason that Flowers is deeply engrossed in his training right now.

To take the Robinson hurdle he must be in the very pink.

The latter is one of the world's greatest middleweights, even though he may not have received such publicity as that given Siki, Norwalk, Jamaica Kid and other famous blacks. He is the favored ring son of Boston, which has turned out many a great fighter—Sullivan, Langford, Wilson, Robson, O'Dowd and others.

In the east it is a foregone conclusion that Robinson is the master of Johnny Wilson, the former middleweight champion. By pasting the Italian until he was groggy and hanging on the ropes, twice smacking him down, Robinson proved beyond shadow of a doubt that he can whip Wilson.

By taking Panama Joe Gans, John Lester Johnson, Joe Egan, Lee Anderson, Jack McCarron, Italian Joe Gans, Frank Carbone, Sailor Darden, Pat Reed and Kid Norfolk to his list of victims, Robinson added immensely to his prestige.

And so if Tiger can whip Robinson he can consider himself "made" in eastern ring circles, where he has never shown. In the middle west the Atlanta product is one of the leading drawing cards. Detroit, Springfield, Ohio, Toledo, Dayton, Youngstown and other mid-western cities are strong for the Tiger, as is the southwest—Mexico City, Juarez, El Paso and cities of that region. But he has yet to make his mark in the east.

By disposing of Robinson he can claim the right to challenge the best the east has produced.

Walk Miller himself is promoting this bout Tuesday night. He announces that ladies will be admitted free of charge, as is his custom, and that no advance in prices will be made.

Moreover he is going to stage 40 rounds of fighting in all, and Larry Avera, Jack Denham, Jackie Carr and Mike Murphy are a few of the boys he is developing for preliminary engagements.

SIKI IS LOOKING AROUND.
New York, November 22.—Battling Siki, the eminent lion tamer from Senegal, probably will be given a chance presently to see what he can do with a native American bearcat, Harry Greb, the meat-eating cat from Pittsburgh, has been offered one match in Madison Square Garden with Siki, and if he doesn't like the atmosphere of the Garden, a 12-round to no decision in Newark, New Jersey.

Greb registered slight interest but great respect for Siki, but if the percentage is made high enough his manager may decide to let him try his claws on the sooty Senegalese.

Siki has been offered opportunities to be poked in the eye by local bullies in various parts of the country since he withstood 15 rounds of abuse from Kid Norfolk Tuesday night. One offer comes from Atlanta where a promoter wants him to take another ferocious feline known as Tiger Flowers. And Flowers has spread grief among his colored brethren in all rings south of the line.

With Frew out of the lineup, the punting burden will be shifted to Captain Cameron. While the pilot of the Blue and White is not new to the kicking game, seldom has he been called upon to perform in that department so long as the South Carolina boy remained in the line-up. Terry is back in uniform again, and with Tucker in shape, the squad as a whole is in perhaps better condition than at any time since.

TIGER FLOWERS HAS TROUBLE SECURING SPARRING PARTNERS —MAY FIGHT SIKI

It is worth most anybody's time that happens to have a few minutes off in the afternoon to take a trip up to Walk Miller's gym, at 29 1-2 Marietta street, to watch Tiger Flowers condition himself for his scrap with George Robinson here next Thursday.

Every day about 5 o'clock Billy Hopper brings in three or four dusky gentlemen who aspire to fistic honors, but whatever ambition they may have had, it is a safe bet that when they leave the gym they are willing to sit by in the future and watch somebody else do the fighting.

Tiger manages to get plenty of exercise, but it is more like road work than anything else. Each one of the dusky boxers that volunteers for duty every day is supposed to go only two rounds with the Tiger, but before the first round is over they have about run themselves down, trying to keep out of the way of Tiger's many blows. They are all brave when they start the round, but by the time Tiger gets warmed up they are ready to quit. Then Walk has to send out the S O S for Battling Rudi, Irish Benny, Larry Avera and a flock of other young gentlemen with pugilistic aspirations to give the Tiger the needed amount of work.

It is a safe bet that Tiger will have to be in first-class shape when he gets in the ring with Robinson. This soot-colored brawler from Boston is just about the toughest man Tiger has been slated to face since a quite while. He is rated one of the best middleweights in and around Boston and is nearer Tiger's weight than any other fighter that has ever appeared with him in the local ring. Robinson first jumped into the limelight about two years ago when he fought a sensational battle with Johnny Wilson, the middleweight champion. The affair was a no-decision bout, but all of the papers were unanimous in their opinion that Robinson had given the champion a nice licking.

The announcement made today that Battling Siki would not return to France after his fight with Kid Norfolk as he had previously planned, but would remain in this country and make a tour, meeting the best fighters of this country, is good news for local fans. This will probably mean that Tiger's next fight will be with Siki here in Atlanta the latter part of next month.

With a Stribling fight slated during the next month and a Siki-Flowers match on the program a busy time is ahead for the fans. The new boxing commission will probably be functioning at that time, and fans can be assured of first-class shows.

GEORGIA LEAVES TODAY FOR GAME WITH ALABAMA

BY WALTER G. COOPER, JR.
Athens, Ga., November 22.—(Special.)—The latest decision of the athletic authorities at the University of Georgia is that the Bulldog squad will board the train early Friday afternoon for Montgomery, reaching their destination that night.

The team finished its hard scrimmaging yesterday, and today tapered off the training for the Alabama game with lighter practice. Today it was stated that with the exception of Fletcher, Randall and Kilpatrick the eleven will be in fairly good condition. This is a pretty big exception.

Kilpatrick has not recovered as fast as first hopes supposed and it is doubtful whether he will play at all. The other two stellar members of the backfield quartet will be called upon, but under the handicap of poor condition they may not be able to deliver. The squad that will take the trip to the Alabama metropolis will include much the same men that went last week to Vandy, the line-up will also be substantially the same.

Important Cogs Missing.
Cleckley and Nelson, reserve halfbacks who saw service against Vandy, will no doubt be called on again to relieve the first string pair composed of the two injured stars, Randall and Fletcher. The most important cog that may be missing from the Red and Black machine is Buster Kilpatrick.

Georgia and Alabama met last week in the cross-country track meet held in Atlanta. Although "Bama" carried off individual honors, the Bulldog team copped the meet and returned with the cup.

Tomorrow, the day before the classic grid clash, the two institutions will meet in two other contests—a freshman football game and a golf match. It will be remembered that Georgia won the team trophy in the first southern conference golf tournament last spring. The Bulldogs will be represented on the links in this match with Alabama by a quartet of golfers—Harris Jones (captain), Cartledge, Hamilton and Grant. The Alabama team is said to have several brilliant golfers this fall and will put a close match.

Good Freshman Team.
The Georgia freshmen have been playing a brand of football rarely seen in freshman games. A clean record of victories over rival first-year teams of other southern colleges boosts them to the position of the outstanding freshman team in this section.

Possessing a powerful line, they display a brilliant offensive led by four backfield men who are all consistent and stellar performers. Coach Backman has developed an effective system of interference that gives his fleet halfbacks a fine chance to get under way.

To date they have presented an almost impenetrable defense. One lone touchdown is the sum total of the scores recorded against them. This one came in the closing minutes of the game with the young "Gators" last week as a result of forward passes. The dash and smoothness of this freshman eleven speaks well for the future prospects of the Red and Black varsity.

Fresh Line-Up.
The Crimson Tide also claims to have a world-beater in the form of a freshman team, and several important victories back their assertions. Their performance is said to be on

BENNY REAGAN FLINGS DEFI

TECH'S TEAM WORKING HARD

BY JOHN STATION.
Tech's first scrimmage against the Auburn formations was held yesterday. Kid Clay's best array of scrubs played the part of Auburn and the second varsity opposed them. The first was fast and furious clear through, with the second varsity having the decided edge.

To was one of the best scrimmages of the year, from every standpoint. Both teams went into the melee with a willingness that has not been seen many times before this season in scrimmage. At the end of the afternoon, both Coach Clay and Wood complimented their men before sending them to the showers.

The scrubs started off with a rush, employing to a large extent the new formation used by Auburn this year. This formation calls for a very heavy shift on part of the defensive linemen in order to meet the shift which the Auburn forwards take. Early in the scrimmage, the second varsity linemen were not shifting far enough to the strong side, and as a consequence, the scrubs gained lots of ground.

Good Defensive Ball.
But, after a time, the varsity settled down and played matchless defensive ball all afternoon. The varsity did not retain possession of the ball but played purely a defensive game all the way through.

Godwin and Fleecewood formed the guard combination for the varsity. And they gummed up the center of the line in airtight shape. The scrubs found the center of the line impracticable.

Godwin played a masterful game at guard, and proved the sneaking suspicion that he should have been a guard all the time. Walt declared that he did not know what it was all about for about five minutes, but after he got accustomed to the job, he liked it well enough.

With his stocky build and tremendous driving power, he bowled right through the scrub guards, and many times nailed the bucker for a loss.

Just before the close scrimmage, the scrubs ran eight straight plays over either Godwin or Fleecewood. At the end of the eighth play, the scrubs still had four yards to go to make first down. That's how Walt and Red treated the poor scrubs all afternoon.

Coach Alexander took the first varsity down on the lower field for a tedious dummy drill and a session with the tackling dummies. A set of scrubs came down on the lower field, and ran through most all the Auburn plays while the varsity looked on.

Varsity Drills Signals.
Then the varsity broke into a snappy signal drill running over every play which Coach Alexander plans to use against Auburn. The feature of the signal drill was the fact that some of the crumples got into it. Pinky Hunt called signals from his regular quarterback position for the first time since the Alabama game. Bip Farnsworth ran at right halfback for the first time since the Penn State game. And Joe Urey completed the list. Joe was back fighting hard at left tackle. Joe has been laid up for a week or more with an injured leg. It is now well enough to allow him to run on it. And Joe fully expects to be in tin-top shape by Thursday.

Yale and Harvard Will Meet At Cambridge; Army-Navy In Annual Clash at New York

BY WALTER CAMP.
(Copyright, 1923, for The Constitution.)

New York, November 22.—Be not deceived by the wild "uns and downs" of football critics. When Yale meets Harvard at Cambridge next Saturday she is going to have her hands full, despite their relative showings against Princeton.

Harvard without question had the most powerful line of the year at the opening of the season, and that line will be very nearly intact when it faces Yale, with two weeks in which to have learned the lesson of the Princeton game.

Hubbard is as good a guard as has stood on cleats. Dunker and Grew are both first-class. McGilone and Cheek are mighty capable performers, and so is Hammond on his good days. Auburn is a hard runner.

When Harvard ended her Princeton game she was going very strong. The Brown contest last Saturday can be practically ignored, as the psychology of that game was "never mind about this, but wait for Yale."

Of course, Yale is a much more finished team in her attack—that is, in attack thus far displayed. But Harvard must have been doing something in the last two weeks and it gets a drive on tackle, supplemented with a reasonable forward pass. Yale will have plenty of trouble beating her.

Army Meets Navy.
The other big eastern spectacle of the work, the Army-Navy game at New York—loses something of the great reunion feature that characterized it when it was played the Saturday after Thanksgiving.

Then it meant that all the old football coaches, players and officials had the day off to see the game. But there will be plenty of people in attendance in the shape of ordinary spectators and the game, if it is anything like that last year, should be one of the most exciting of the season.

The story goes that Harvard "got some Notre Dame stuff" and if they can execute it as Knute Rockne's pupils do, it should give them a lead.

Army is powerful but somewhat more ponderous than Navy. The Navy, however, is trickier, has some slippery men back of the line, and will not hesitate to be venturesome in an effort to offset the power and dash of Army.

Wood should have the better of the kicking if he is in good shape, while it should be remembered that Navy's quarterback was the elusive player who brought the ball up to scoring position by a long run in the last minutes of play last year, and helped wrest victory from apparent defeat. The Navy undoubtedly will watch him with great care and anxiety.

Operate Special Train.

BERT NIEHOFF WILL LEAD ATLANTA TEAM IN 1924

Corbett Admits Offer But Has Not Received Niehoff's Acceptance

Bert Niehoff will be the Atlanta baseball club's 1924 manager, according to reports which emanate from Mobile and which Jack Corbett, president of the Atlanta Baseball association, stated Thursday night were entirely probable.

Mr. Corbett, when apprised of the Mobile dispatches, declared that he had been kicking with Niehoff and that he had made him a definite proposition. "Niehoff, however," said Mr. Corbett, "is in Los Angeles at present and I have not yet received a telegram of acceptance from him. It is true that we have been discussing the matter by wire and I have made him a proposition, which, when I have received his acceptance, will make him Atlanta's manager in 1924. I can not state definitely, however, that he has signed the contract."

Scrappy Ball Player. Niehoff, himself a dependable infielder, has been manager of Mobile for two years. The first year as pilot he led the Bears to a pennant and in his second year he finished his team in second place.

His name on an Atlanta contract, it is believed, will be highly acceptable to Atlanta fans. It is practically certain that his advent will mean that Atlanta will have a playing manager, and for a man of the scrappy qualities which Niehoff possesses, the field is the place for him.

NIEHOFF HAS SIGNED—MOBILE. Mobile, Ala., November 22.—(Special.)—Bert Niehoff, who announced tonight that he had signed a contract to manage the Atlanta team of 1924, will meet President Corbett in Chicago in December and talk over deals and the plans for the season of the Atlanta team. Niehoff's action in quitting the Mobile club was a surprise to some but not to those on the inside as it was well known that he wanted more money to come back to the Gulf City, basing his action on the showing that he made during his two years as manager winning a flag in 1921 and finishing second the past season.

Disatisfied With Salary. Niehoff wired President Weinacker tonight that the offer of the Atlanta club was such a lucrative one that he could not turn it down. Niehoff's contract with Mobile was a yearly one. While no successor to Niehoff would be discussed by the local baseball officials it is believed here that Emil Huhn will succeed him. Huhn led the local club as first sacker and the league's leading batter.

Niehoff started playing professional ball in 1911, and has never played in lower than class A ball. He was with the Philadelphia Nationals during the years 1915, '16 and '17, quitting baseball to join the army in 1918. In 1919 he was sent to Louisville, playing there for two seasons. In 1921 he went to Los Angeles of the Coast League, where he had a good year. While this will mark his third effort as a manager, Niehoff has had lots of experience, especially during the last two seasons.

Local Preps Are Closing Very Successful Season

BY GORDON KEITH.
With only six more games scheduled for local elevens, the preps have completed a strenuous week of preparation for their closing games.

G. M. A. has completed her schedule and the scrappy little team has stopped practicing. The Tech High game, in which the Cadets made such a surprising showing, ended the College Park eleven's season, and a very good team has passed into history. The Cadets had a very successful season, losing only two games, both by one point margins, to Decatur and Tech High, and piled up an imposing score on their opponents. The Cadets never failed to score any game.

True, one eleven, Boys' High, defended her goal line successfully, but G. M. A. kicked over and won the game with a field goal. Coach Morrison made a fine record of success with his team, and the team and coach deserve a great deal of credit for the imposing record they made.

Four Local Games.

There will be only four more games played on local grids, one this afternoon in Decatur between Decatur High and Athens High, and three next week, one Wednesday afternoon and two Thanksgiving morning. Boys' High goes down to Columbus today to play the Columbus team this afternoon, and Tech High journeys over to Birmingham where she will play Enley High Saturday morning. University will not play this week, and will close her season with her game with Decatur Thanksgiving.

Marist will not play this week, either, and will finish hostilities with a battle with Carrollton A. & M. Thanksgiving morning. Besides the hard games to be played this week-end by Boys' High and Tech High, these two elevens will clash in their annual battle next Wednesday afternoon.

The only home game today, therefore, is the battle between Decatur and Athens. This will be a very good game, and Decatur will do well to take the measure of the visitors. Athens has played Decatur two or three times in recent years, and the games have always been exceedingly hardfought and entertaining battles. Decatur has a very good chance to avenge any past defeats administered by the Athens teams this afternoon, and will in all probability take advantage of the fact.

Battling Budd In Draw Fight

Wilmington, N. C., November 22.—(Special.)—Battling Budd, of Atlanta, and Ken Burris, a local boy fought eight rounds to a draw here tonight. The largest crowd that has ever attended a fight here in this section was on hand and both boys put up a great fight.

A PIECE FOR THE PAPER

By PAUL WARWICK

Irish Benny, the human telephone book, has broken out with a fresh rash of nomenclature, according to word wafted to this establishment from the sumptuous cauliflower nurseries of Walkington V. Miller, foremost local moulder of pugilistic destinies.

Irish now responds in a loud, clear voice to the name of Irish Benny Cline, and any wedding invitations and the like may be forwarded to him under those entitlements. A few brief weeks ago Benny stepped into a local preliminary as Irish Benny, pure and simple. As far as being clothed with a surname was concerned, he was shockingly nude.

Then he developed a left-hand punch and on his next appearance was billed as Irish Benny Pledger. Two or three fights went careening down the storied vistas of knuckle-knocking history while Benny juggled that set of labels.

MAKING A NAME FOR FIGHTERS.

Then Irish took refuge under the sheltering managerial arm of Walk Miller and Cline supplanted Pledger. Walk has been godfather to more local pugilists than sounds reasonable. It was Walk who dived into Clarence Avery's patronymic possessions and came up with Larry Averá. It was he who transformed an inconspicuous Charlie Bowen into a formidable Tim O'Dowd. Fearless Ferns is another gem from the Miller collection of pugonims.

Benny will use his new name for the first time against the rugged countenance of Jackie Carr this coming Tuesday night. Fans will watch the result with interest.

SIKI SAMPLES SOBER SOCKING.

It begins to appear that Battling Siki will bring his retinue of lamp posts and hangers to Atlanta for a brief spell. Having tasted the bitter fruits of prohibition in his recent unsuccessful and sober sally against Kid Norfolk, the heavy-drinking heavyweight has announced his intention of staying in this country.

Probably figures that by a month or so of sleuth-evasion in this land he can amass enough francs to more than quench his cumulative thirst when he returns to the cafes of Boulevard des Italiens and Montmartre.

If he makes his southern invasion, it is to be hoped none of his admirers, if any, introduce him to the liquefied barbed wire said to be prevalent in the section. If the milder portions of France can send the big black into the paroxysms the cables have told us about—the Place del'Opera would be a hailstorm of tables from the Cafe de Paris if he ever smuggled a snifter of stump rum into the French capital.

He'd probably use the Eiffel tower for a toothpick and appropriate the Seine for a chaser.

SCALPERS CHANTING LULLABY TO PEPPY MIDDIES AND CADETS

New York, November 22.—Ticket speculators are mopping up along Broadway as the regiment of midshipmen and the West Point Cadets fall into step for the descent on New York to attend the renewal of their strife in the gridiron of the Polo Grounds Saturday afternoon.

Only 22 of the theaters have failed to advance their box office prices, all others having hoisted the rates by one or two dollars on every ticket for Saturday night. To these advanced prices the scalpers have added liberal profits, rated according to the popularity of the attractions.

Nor have they neglected those attractions whose box office rates remained the same for the night of the service men's big holiday. Tickets for these shows have fallen into the scalpers' hands and in that manner the prices have been raised along with the others despite the good intentions of the show managers.

Hundreds if not thousands of tickets for the game have reached the speculators, notwithstanding the annual claim of the New York Giants, whose offices are handling the public sales, that scalpers were not allowed to buy at the ticket window. Seats about midfield, close to the margin of the gridiron, were quoted in one place at $35 a pair and other dealers asked $20 each. How the speculators got them in, as usual, a mystery.

Fortunately for the cadets of both academies, they do not need tickets to get into the Polo Grounds but their entertainment in the evening after the game will come high.

COMMODORES PLAN FOR 1924

Nashville, Tenn., November 22.—(Special.)—Games with the most representative elevens in the south, several of whom are members of the Southern Intercollegiate conference, feature the 1924 football schedule of the Vanderbilt Commodores, which has just been announced. Practically all of the grid outfits of the south are negotiating for games next year already, and while many contests have already been booked, the Commodores are one of the first squads in Dixie to have practically completed its chart for next season.

Vanderbilt in taking on several new teams will have one of the most favorable schedules in the past several years, while at the same time one of the most strenuous series of clashes that the has ever had to face. The 1923 schedule received some little criticism due to the fact that the Gold and Black was not pitted against several of the major southern teams, but had booked two inter-sectional frays instead. This pair of games, the first with Michigan, and the second only a week later with the University of Texas Longhorns, proved to be more than was s'le to stand and while holding the Michigan Wolverines to her lowest score of the year, 3 to 0, the following week the Commodores were overrun in Dallas. Vanderbilt officials have profited by this defeat and this year trips will not be made in succession.

The 1924 schedule is an attractive one, containing as it does Georgia Tech, Auburn, Georgia, Tulane and Sewanee, and possibly the University of Tennessee. Of these six games, five are with S. I. C. teams, which will far better enable a real southern champion to be picked next year than during the past several seasons. Negotiations have been entered into with the University of Alabama, but it is not likely that a suitable date can be arranged with the Crimson Tide. This has been a distinct disappointment to followers of both outfits, as both stand out this year as two of the greatest teams in the south.

The schedule as it stands at the present time follows:

September 27—Birmingham Southern, in Nashville.

October 4—Howard, in Nashville.

October 11—Open.

October 18—Tulane, in New Orleans.

October 25—Georgia, in Nashville.

November 2—Auburn, in Nashville.

November 9—Tennessee, in Nashville. (doubtful.)

November 15—Georgia Tech, in Atlanta.

November 27—Sewanee, in Nashville.

At the present time Vanderbilt and University of Tennessee officials are discussing a suitable date for a clash, but arrangements have been deadlocked owing to the desire of both institutions to have the game played in their respective cities next year. While the Vandy game would be one of the Vol's biggest games in Knoxville, the Commodores are unwilling to make a journey the week before they meet the Golden Tornado of Georgia Tech, in Atlanta, and moreover the Vol game here would be a large drawing-card, as it was this year and has been for seasons past.

Sport Writer Dies.

San Francisco, November 22.—W. F. Corbett, editor of The Sydney Referee and one of the best known sporting writers in the world, is dead, according to word reaching here from Sydney. Corbett made a number of visits to the United States.

When the potato was first introduced into Scotland, it met with much opposition. Sermons were preached against it, in which it was declared that, as the potato was not mentioned in the Bible, it must be unfit for Christians to eat. It was even described by one divine as being the forbidden fruit which had caused the fall of Adam.

Good Taste in Entertaining

A Series of Thrice-Weekly Articles by Julia Hoyt (Mrs. Lydia Hoyt)
NO. 15—WEEK-END PARTIES

Week-end entertaining may be simple, with no entertainment provided for the house guests, or it may be more elaborate—according to the desire of the hostess. Inviting guests for the week-end no longer necessitates a series of dinners and luncheons, as I believe it did some years ago. If the hostess has invited people she feels reasonably sure are congenial, she need not worry about providing additional guests unless she so wishes.

Needless to say, she cannot expect her week-end to be a success if she thoughtlessly invites two who play bridge and two who do not, or four or five people whose views and opinions differ so radically that conversation would be a dangerous and difficult affair. Unfortunately, to my mind, the latter form of congeniality is not as important as congeniality with regard to games. Generally the amount of time given to conversation is so small that it is comparatively easy to keep it, if not really interesting, at any rate pleasant. The arranging of the games, indoor or outdoor, is much more important. The average guest wants to be sure of his or her game of golf or tennis during the day and the game of cards he or she plays best in the evening. They do not consider themselves neglected if no other guests than those in the house are provided, but I'm afraid they feel decidedly injured if they must be content to merely sit and talk because one of the party prevents their making up a game of some kind. There are really only two things absolutely necessary for the hostess of a week-end party to think of. First and foremost, to give thought to the people she invites together; second, to do all within her capacity to insure their comfort. These two rules hold good for all entertaining, but they are most important for the week-end.

In considering the comfort of one's guests, I should place the bedroom at the head of the list. If you want each guest the hour he wishes breakfast served, or if he would rather ring when he wakes. If this manner of serving breakfast is not convenient, a delightful way (used very much in England) is to have everything placed on the sideboard. The hot dishes are placed on a large copper heater and the guests are asked to serve themselves after and up to a certain hour.

KICKED WIFE TO DEATH IS CHARGE OF POLICE

Providence, R. I., November 22.—Ernest Fontaine, of Warren, was arrested by the police of that town early this morning, charged with beating and kicking his wife to death in the street in front of their home on Ellis avenue. It is believed that he had gone suddenly insane. Mrs. Fontaine and her husband had quarreled violently earlier in the evening. Their altercation continued after they had retired.

He attacked her, police said, and she fled to the street to seek safety. Her husband followed, carrying a brick, which he did not use, however. The woman, terribly bruised about the head and chest, was dead when a doctor arrived. Fontaine was found by the police at the home of his father a short time later. Four small children of the couple were in the house at the time of the alleged murder.

AMERICAN GIRLS SLAVES IN ORIENT

Chicago, November 22.—Procurers of American girls sell them into slavery in ports of Asia. Colonel Nicholas Korovod told a conference conducted by the Illinois Vigilance association today. The girls, he said, are for sale in the hotel lobbies of every important city in the country. The dealers deceive the girls, he said, by pretending to recruit them for moving picture work in Asia.

"In China white slavery is not a figure of speech," he said. "It is a reality. It is extremely difficult for an enslaved girl to escape."

Women To Fill Pulpits Asserts Church Official In Famous Spire

Philadelphia, November 22.—Women preachers in time will fill the majority of pulpits in the rural sections, Rev. David D. Forsyth, corresponding secretary of the board of home missions of the Methodist Episcopal church, predicted at a meeting of the board here today. The woman minister in a few years will be as familiar a figure in the country as the present rural school teacher, he said.

"Reports indicate the number of recruits to the ministry is small," Dr. Forsyth declared. "Many ministers find it difficult to continue in the service because of economic conditions. The rural minister has a harder time to support a family now than at any time during the past two decades."

A woman preacher would be as successful in the country as is her sister, the country school teacher, the speaker declared. She could live more economically than could a minister with a family.

According to Dr. Forsyth, more whites, born in the south, have sought homes elsewhere than have negroes born there. He declared a study of the 1920 census revealed that 780,000 whites had left the southern states, 376,000 negroes had migrated to the north.

The Rev. R. J. Wade chairman of the committee on conservation and advancement, presented the world service program of the church. It called for the raising of a fund of $18,500,000 for 1924. Fourteen missionary and benevolent boards will benefit from the money, Mr. Wade said.

London, November 22.—Up in the golden gallery of the famous St. Paul's cathedral, 350 feet above the rumbling traffic of Ludgate Hill, the body of a vaudeville agent was discovered Thursday afternoon, a bullet wound in his head.

He had attempted suicide on the dome of England's most revered church, beneath the great cross that stands in impressive silhouette against the skyline of the city of London.

Attendants in the cathedral had hurried to his side when a revolver shot suddenly pierced the silence of the vast spaces within the cathedral. With difficulty they carried him down the hundreds of winding stairs and rushed him to a hospital, where he died.

He was identified as J. Tye-Smith.

Theater Agent Commits Suicide In Famous Spire

Mobile, Ala., November 22.—The jury in the case of Thomas W. Cleveland, charged with the killing of Stephen Lossing, an aged resident of West Fowl river, was discharged at 1 o'clock today by Judge Joel W. Goldsby, of the circuit court, and a mistrial entered.

Both the state and defense agreed to the jury being discharged.

The jury retired last Monday night at 9:10 o'clock with the case.

FARMER UNION FAVORS FARM PRODUCT TARIFF

Omaha, Neb., November 22.—Declaring that as long as high prices of necessities prevail, as a result of duties for protection of American-manufactured goods, it is right to raise or equalize the tariff in farm products, delegates to the annual convention of the Farmers union asked in a resolution adopted late today that the tariff on wheat be increased 50 cents a bushel.

SENTENCE OF BANKER MAY BE CUT 5 YEARS

Columbia, S. C., November 22.—Suspension of five years of the ten-year sentence of Thomas B. McLaurin, former president of the Mutual Savings Bank of Bennettsville, convicted of breach of trust and serving his term in the state penitentiary, has been recommended by the state board of pardons to Governor Thomas G. McLeod, according to announcement from the office of the executive late today. In addition, the board recommends that, if the prisoner is deemed worthy after four years of servitude, the remaining year of the sentence be commuted. The governor has reserved his decision.

Thomas B. McLaurin is the son of former United States Senator John L. McLaurin.

CABINET MEMBER HURLS DUEL GAG

Budapest, November 22.—Minister of Education Kleberberg has challenged Deputy Rakovsky, royalist, to a duel for an alleged insulting remark during yesterday's stormy debate in parliament over the public prayer and other birthday ceremonies for the young Archduke Otto, son of the late Emperor Charles, during which Otto's name was cheered by the crowd as "hereditary king of Hungary."

Count Bethlen, the premier, replying to the anti-legitimists, said he could not prevent the people from praying for the archduke's health, but that he would order prosecutions if any expressions were heard in violation of the law against restoration of the Hapsburg dynasty.

CONGRESS TO AID FARMERS, CLAIMS KANSAS SENATOR

New York, November 22.—Congress will carry through a program of legislation bringing relief to agriculture and making an equitable balance of prosperity, Senator Capper of Kansas today predicted at a luncheon given in his honor by the associated traveling salesmen of New York.

Senator Capper said the farmers sought legislation in congress to provide relief in transportation rates and taxation, abolition of the 50 per cent surtax on Pullman cars, aid for an outlet for the producers surplus in European markets and maintenance of home markets on a better distribution basis.

2 FINED FOR TRESPASS AFTER 2,000-FOOT FALL

Waukegan, Ill., November 22.—It cost R. E. Conant, a former district attorney and later a Waukegan resident, both of Milwaukee, who with an unidentified woman in an airplane made a 2,000-foot plunge to earth near here, $10 each because they landed without a permit.

After being held all day yesterday by Sheriff Ahlstrom, the men were released last night after paying the fines for trespassing. The woman disappeared after the crash and the men were arrested later when they returned to the plane.

Warschauer's wife came here yesterday inquiring about the woman in the plane but declared "I would trust Hanford to the end of the world."

Lynchburg, Va., November 22.—J. B. Williams, 19, and his sister, Blanche Francis, four, were killed and their father, J. L. Williams, was seriously injured today when their automobile, in backing from an alley near their home, was struck by a street car. The party was starting for Bedford county to attend the funeral of the father's mother, Motorman Faulconer, in charge of the street car, was arrested on a charge of involuntary manslaughter.

Jane Hedden Hat Pattern

For the Debutante's Dance Hat. Model No. 211X has all the requisite qualities for the young girl's dance hat. It has all the gay vivaciousness of youth, all the charm of contour and just the right combination of lightness and comfort necessary for dancing. The foundation may be of cotton, crepe de chine, or faille in any of the pastel shades. Apple green, orchid, peach or sand are charming when a variety of colors is used for the noisette of flowers. The facing may be a darker shade of the color used for the top or may match any one shade of the flowers. Choosing the right colors to harmonize with the dance frocks is the main problem as the making of the hat is quite simple.

MATERIAL REQUIRED.
One soft crown, 3-4 yard elastic net or willow, 3-4 yard 36-inch material or 1-2 yard 18-inch material—cap lining, flowers.

This order will bring you pattern and working instructions for making hat illustrated above. Fill in name and address, inclose 25 cents in stamps, postal note or coin—address your order to Hat Pattern Department, The Atlanta Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

Xmas Celebration Launched At Better Films Meeting

More than fifty members of the Atlanta Better Films committee assembled for luncheon and the regular monthly committee meeting, Thursday, November 22, in the gray room of the Piedmont hotel, and formulated plans for extending the work and activities of the Better Films Movement and Christmas celebration.

Among the most forceful speakers at the luncheon were A. C. Coles, George Watts, Rotarian representative; R. B. Williams, film board of trustees; Joe Coffman, superintendent of education in the Atlanta public schools; Roland G. McCurdy, J. L. Cook, Y. M. C. A. representative; N. V. Darley, manager of the Alpha theater; Howard Kingsmore, manager of the Howard theater, and George Allison, film board of trade representative. All of these men were enthusiastic in their praise of the Better Films committee's accomplishments, and pledged their continued support to the committee.

Howard Kingsmore, manager of the Howard theater, outlined plans for a monster Christmas celebration and party to be staged for the boys and girls matinees, and for the poor children of Atlanta at the Howard theater during Christmas week. Mr. Kingsmore will have assisting him, the Atlanta Inter-Civic council and the Atlanta Better Films committee.

Mrs. R. F. McCormack, vice president of the Better Films committee and chairman of the Parent-Teacher representatives, reported a splendid meeting of her committee, and their unanimous pledge of cooperation in putting on a gigantic Christmas program. Miss Van Dusen, representing the Junior Red Cross, offered the assistance of that body in carrying out Christmas plans.

Girl Reserves Active at Y. W. C. A.

A Thanksgiving party was held by the Y. W. C. A. girl reserves of the eighth grade of the Hoke Smith Junior High school, Thursday afternoon, in their club room on the third floor of the Y. Peachtree Arcade. Twenty girls and the adviser of their club, Miss Jimmie Brown, were present. The latter is teacher of the reserves in the eighth grade. Games were played and prizes awarded in contests.

The reserves in the club are Misses Pearl Joyner, Elizabeth Whitaker, Myrtle Lowery, Sarah Anchors, Loretta Garner, Mary Hutchins, Nell Shropshire, Evelyn Borden, Sarah Key, Angeline Saul, Martha Herley, Sadie Koplin, Louise Williamson, Ruby Stevenson, Hazel Wallace, Florence Calhoun, Vera Rolander, Nellie Smith, Agnes Buffington and Agnes Daniel.

This afternoon, the reserves of the Joseph E. Brown Junior High school with their club adviser and teacher, Miss Mary Thomas, will hold a recognition service at which time new members are formally admitted into the club. Today at noon the reserve club of the Girls' High school will entertain their faculty in their club room. Mildred Kelly is president of the club. Following luncheon the girls' high reserves will also hold their recognition service.

Monday morning the girls in the newest club to be organized, that at the William A. Bass Junior High school, will meet in the Y. W. C. A. club room to elect their officers for the fiscal year.

The Y. W. C. A. girl reserve department has two secretaries who devote their entire time to their work. They are Miss Lottie Agell and Miss Daisy Ingram, associate. Each reserve club in the high schools and the Junior Highs has an adviser who is usually a teacher and a full quota of officers who are the girl reserves themselves. The purpose of the reserve department is four-fold, mental, physical, social and spiritual.

Miss Mary Rennie will entertain her bridge club this afternoon at her home on West Peachtree street. She will be assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. Lila Rennie and her sister, Miss Nellie Rennie.

Mrs. Couper's Paintings At Woman's Club

The wonderful paintings of Mrs. B. King Couper, which are on exhibition in the art gallery of the Atlanta Woman's club, under the sponsorship of the Atlanta Art association is attracting the widest-spread interest among Atlanta lovers of art. Mrs. Couper's paintings include portraits, landscapes, and subjects from still life.

In landscapes "Spring" deserves first mention. It is most appealing. One feels the young green growth of springtime. "Dogwood" and "Mountain Laurel" are companion pictures and most suggestive of the wonderful days that follow winter. "A Mountain Road" is full of light and air and the ruts in the road are most realistic. "The Spirit of the Palms" is drenched in mist and dew.

"After the Like." Is a young man resting in the shade after a tramp over the hills. This is very strong and realistic. A path through the woods to home is appropriately named "Love In A Cottage."

Among her remarkable pastels are "A Chilly Day," a little girl warming her hands. "In Shadow," is the contrast brought out in a figure posed against the sunlight. "The Mandolin Player," is a portrait of an artist's son, and in this painting are found purple and yellow contrasts, and the face is wonderfully bright and attractive.

The "Snow Baby" is a chubby boy, ruddy with the glow of winter in his cheeks after a play in the snow, and the subject of this painting was James Malcolm Sibley.

Among the children of the exhibition is "Just a Boy," an American boy, posed by Roy Melton, of Spartanburg, S. C. This portrait is full of life, very strong, rich in color and altogether pleasing. "The Girl of Corea," makes a fine sailor boy. There is much of the beauty of the child in the gold and blue presentment for which Edith Steedly posed. "A Descendant of Ham" portrays the patience and inertia of the African race, expressed in a most artistic manner.

Emory Orchestra To Give Concert.
The Emory orchestra, assisted by the Glee club quartette and soloists, will present a program in the auditorium of the Inman Park Methodist church, Friday evening, November 23, at 8 o'clock.

This is the fourth number of the program course under the auspices of the Woman's Missionary society for the benefit of the building fund of the new Sunday school annex.

Anyone not having a season ticket admission will be seated at the door. Adults 35 cents, children 10 cents.

Mrs. McIntyre Is Hostess.
Mrs. Frank McIntyre, of Savannah, prominent in the third regional conference of democratic women, who is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Wilmer L. Moore, at her home on West Eleventh street, entertained at dinner Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Moore.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Benton McMillin, Mrs. Z. V. Peterson, Mrs. Edgar Alexander, Mrs. Thornton Lee Brown, Mrs. Neal Wright, Mrs. Moore and Mrs. McIntyre.

Mrs. Frank Harrold Elected; Wilson Speaks to Delegates

Mrs. Frank Harrold, of Americus, Ga., elected president general of the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

BY MRS. MCCORD ROBERTS.
Washington, November 22.—(Special.)—Mrs. Frank Harrold, of Georgia, was elected president-general of the United Daughters of the Confederacy on Thursday morning by an overwhelming majority. Mrs. Harrold received 1,578 votes against 679 for Mrs. Amos Norris, of Florida. Mrs. R. H. Chesley, of Boston, Mass., formerly of Athens, Ga., was elected corresponding secretary-general, defeating Mrs. Walter Hutton, of the District of Columbia by a large majority. These two offices were the most hotly contested.

With Georgia giving Mrs. Harrold a lead of 297 votes and with Virginia, the next strongest state casting 289 votes for her out of 319, Mrs. Harrold's election was conceded before the votes were counted. Alabama supported the Georgia candidate with 124 out of 147 and Arizona voted with 94 votes cast. Tennessee and Missouri voted strongly for Mrs. Harrold. Tennessee giving 94 votes out of 119 and Missouri 107 out of 111. States casting a solid vote for Mrs. Harrold included Colorado, 7 votes, Illinois 7 votes, Massachusetts 2, Indiana 2, Washington state 6, West Virginia 56, Minnesota 1, Rhode Island 1. Several other states split their vote with a majority for Mrs. Harrold. South Carolina and Florida voted unanimously for Mrs. Norris. Georgia unanimously for Mrs. Harrold.

A glimpse of Woodrow Wilson was the great event of Thursday afternoon and the demonstration tendered Mr. Wilson by the delegates assembled before his home was of a character in keeping with the veneration expressed for him at all times during

Mrs. Brittain Continues To Be Feted at Parties

Mrs. Robert Brittain, of Detroit, Mich., who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Samuel Johnson, at her home on West Peachtree street, continues to be the guest of honor at a series of delightful social affairs during her visit.

Miss Lella Ponder will be hostess at a bridge-ten next Thursday at her home on Ponce de Leon avenue. On Wednesday Mrs. J. V. Pierson will compliment Mrs. Brittain with a bridge-ten.

Mrs. Harold Barnwell will entertain at bridge Friday, November 29, at her home on West Andrews drive. Mrs. R. Weldon Evans entertained in compliment to Mrs. Brittain Thursday at her home on Linwood avenue. The color motif of yellow and white prevailed in the decoration of the living room and in the appointments of the tea table.

Mrs. H. T. Dobbs assisted her sister in entertaining.

The honor guest was presented an imported powder compact, while the winner of top score was awarded a candy jar. Perfume was presented, as consolation.

Mrs. Evans received her guests wearing a gown of henna crepe back satin embroidered.

Mrs. Maillard Is Hostess.
Mrs. E. D. Bream, of Pittsburgh, Pa., the guest of Mrs. Albert Pritchard, was the central figure at a lovely bridge-ten Thursday afternoon at which Mrs. Gordon Maillard was hostess at her home on Palisade road.

Full flowers in baskets and vases were the decoration in the rooms where the game was played. Tea was served later in the afternoon at individual tables.

Mrs. Maillard received her guests wearing a blue charmeuse gown and was assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. L. G. Maillard.

Mrs. Bream was gowned in black crepe.

Junior Music Club To Meet Saturday.
The Atlanta Junior Music Club will hold its regular meeting from 3 to 4 o'clock on Saturday, November 24, at Cable hall, 82 North Broad street.

The chorus under direction of Mrs. Ruth Wegand will begin at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Maybelle Wall will have charge of the program. Membership fee for entire year is $1.00.

Miss Jessie Brown, Bride-Elect, Is Feted at Lovely Parties

Miss Jessie Sheppard Brown, lovely bride-elect, whose marriage to Anton Lee Etheridge will take place Saturday afternoon, December 1, continues to be the recipient of many social attentions.

Miss Martha Magill was hostess at a beautifully appointed dinner Thursday evening at her home on Juniper street. Autumn leaves and baskets of vari-colored fall flowers were used in effective arrangement throughout the reception rooms.

The dinner table was covered with a filet cloth and in the center was a handsome silver basket filled with long-stemmed pink roses and feathery fern. Surrounding this were tiny bud vases holding single blossoms. Silver candlesticks with pink tapers and glazed compacts of pink bonbons were arranged at intervals. The guests' places were marked by dainty place cards of miniature brides and grooms.

Miss Magill was gowned in a becoming model of blue Canton crepe, beaded.

Miss Brown's gown was of black satin trimmed with fur.

Mrs. M. H. Magill assisted her daughter in entertaining.

Miss Isabel Wyatt was hostess at a bridge-ten Wednesday in compliment to Miss Brown.

Miss Bazzell Barcroft will entertain at a bridge-ten Saturday afternoon in compliment to this charming bride-elect at her home on Ruple Drive. Invited for this occasion are Miss Mary Kidd, Miss Catherine McNulty, Miss Elizabeth Plum, Miss Marion Gaines, Miss Isabel Wyatt, Miss Maura Jenkins, Mrs. Joseph Reed, Mrs. Mack Cason, Mrs. James Cameron and Mrs. T. H. Kidd. Other affairs have been planned, the dates to be announced later.

Former Atlantan Weds in Colorado Springs Nov. 10

Widespread interest centers in the announcement of the marriage of Miss Ruth Emerson Gresham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Y. A. Gresham, of Atlanta, and William Bartlett Chew, Jr., which was solemnized Saturday, November 10, in St. Stephen's Episcopal church, Colorado Springs, Colo.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Taft, rector of the church, in the presence of a small group of intimate friends.

The bride was dressed in a becoming costume of brown velvet, trimmed with sable fur, and a small brown hat. She wore a corsage bouquet of sweet-heart roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Chew is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Y. A. Gresham. She is the sister of Miss Mary Gresham, of Long Beach, Calif., and Crawford Gresham, of New York. She graduated from the Atlanta Normal school and is a graduate of the 1915 class of Princeton university. He was an officer in the army during the world war and served overseas.

After an extended honeymoon through the west, Mr. and Mrs. Chew will reside at the Antlers hotel at Colorado Springs.

Rev. Williams
To Give Lecture.

Rev. Marvin Williams, pastor of Saint James church, Augusta, Ga., will give a lecture in the auditorium of the College Park Methodist church this evening under the auspices of the Carrie Harris circle of the Women's Missionary society. Dr. Williams is one of the most noted humorous lecturers in the south, having been for several years on chautauqua and lecture platforms. The lecture will begin at 7:30 o'clock. Admission 25 cents.

Will Hold Cake Sale.

Western Heights Baptist church W. M. U. Circle 1 will sell home-made cake and chicken salad sandwiches Saturday, November 24, at the Farmers' market on Courtland street, beginning at 10 o'clock. The public is invited to patronize this sale.

primary selection of the candidates. There are thinking women ready to serve. Bringing them into party councils would introduce a loyal and a hard working element. Also, it would be justice that they be given opportunity when it counts the most—that is, in the selection of the right candidates, and the putting of them forward, instead of calling upon the women to do everything in and out of doors to make for the lesser evil between two candidates, a situation which frequently comes to pass.

"Take the instance of what the women have been able to do in this section. Their democratic club here in Asheville is recognized as having been largely instrumental in the rolling up of that biggest democratic majority in the state in the last election. One woman had every woman in her precinct registered."

"One of our neighboring counties, which has always been overwhelmingly republican, while the work of the women be delivered next time to the democrats."

"And do you know how and why these things happen?"

"Some man will report, 'My county is hopelessly republican.'"

"Then get the women to work is the advice of some wise counselor who has seen them in action before. By hard work the women put things over. Most of their effort is home work. One woman obligates herself to bring over ten others, and make each of the ten an agent for similar effort."

"Much of the educational work the women have done has been through monthly rallies in the court house, to which men and women are invited and at which the best speakers, both men and women, take part. These have really become schools of democracy."

MRS. FRANK HARROLD
ELECTED PRESIDENT

appeared at the drawing room windows of his home and welcomed the 2,000 delegates who gathered in front of the home. As Mrs. Wilson held back the curtains, Mr. Wilson spoke a word of greeting.

The former president expressed appreciation for marks of esteem which have been voiced for him by the convention, which yesterday cheered loudly at mention of his name, and today made him and Chief Justice Taft honorary members of the organization. He said he was "very proud of the honor."

Taking off his hat and responding to the cheers of those gathered in the street, Mr. Wilson said:

"Allow me to express my warm gratitude for the kindest interest shown by you. I appreciate it very deeply."

"We glad to see you," broke in a woman's voice.

"The daughters always stand with you—always," said another, adding that the convention had paid him a personal honor in today's session.

"I am very proud of the honor," Mr. Wilson responded, bowing and smiling. Mr. Wilson, himself a southerner, remained at the open window several minutes chatting with Mrs. Wilson and occasionally smiling or waving his hand to the U. D. C. delegates below.

To many daughters of the confederacy the occasion appeared to be a deeply solemn one and the realization that there stood before them a man who had taken upon himself martyrdom for an ideal was expressed on every hand. Preceding the speech of Mr. Wilson the delegates had assembled around the tomb of the unknown dead and paid homage to those others from whom war had exacted the supreme sacrifice.

Perfect weather prevailed and probably no large delegation to Washington has ever been more fortunate in circumstances than this one, which has suffered no inconveniences either in sight-seeing or in carrying on the affairs of the convention. Georgia delegates in particular are rejoicing in accomplishing their two main issues, the election of Mrs. Harrold and greeting Mr. Wilson.

Other Officers.
General U. D. C. candidates without opposition were Mrs. E. E. Ross, of Riverside, Cal., re-elected second vice president; Mrs. Charles Wallace, of North Carolina, third vice president; Mrs. W. H. Estabrook, of Dayton, Ohio, custodian of crosses of honor; Mrs. William Douglas Mason, of Philadelphia, elected custodian of flags and pennants; Mrs. Higgins, of St. Louis, treasurer; Mrs. W. J. Woodliffe, of Muskogee, Okla., registrar-general; Mrs. John Lawton, of Charleston, S. C., and formerly of Virginia, was re-elected historian general, the number of seconds to her nomination amounting in themselves to an election. Mrs. Lawton was the recipient of a demonstration of exceptional volume.

Mrs. Fannie Ransom Williams, of North Carolina, and Mrs. Mary Hume, of Tennessee, received the distinction of being chosen as honorary presidents of the general U. D. C., this distinction being a mark of merit bestowed for exceptional service to the organization.

Historical evening, always a state-ly occasion, closed an eventful day. This was held in the beautiful setting afforded by the ballroom of the Willard hotel and was featured by music rendered by the navy band from the navy yard, and an address on "Jefferson Davis, the American," by Honorable Douglas S. Freeman.

Friday morning will be devoted to reports from standing committees and Friday afternoon will be featured by a group of social functions, the delegates from each state being entertained by a Washington resident from that state.

All delegates were entertained at tea Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Francois Berger Moran at her magnificent home on Massachusetts avenue, Mrs. Moran being a charter member of the Jefferson Davis chapter of Washington, and a leader of the division of the District of Columbia.

Born in Griffin.
Americus, Ga., November 22.—(Special.)—Mrs. Frank P. Harrold, of Americus, who was elected today president general of the United Daughters of the Confederacy at Washington, D. C., has been a resident here since early during 1908, coming here as a bride and rearing her family in this city. She was born Allene Walker, at Griffin, Ga., but removed with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Billington Sanders Walker, while quite young to Monroe, Ga., where she was educated and lived during a number of years. Her mother was formerly Mrs. Alice Mitchell, of Griffin, Ga.

On April 27, 1898, she was married to Frank P. Harrold, of Americus, and since that date has resided here, being active in U. D. C. affairs during the past 15 or 20 years. During several terms she was president of the Americus chapter. Now 36, and two years ago at the St. Louis convention was elected vice president general.

Elected Georgia President.
Four years ago at the Valdosta convention Mrs. Harrold was elected president general of the division which office she held until the Augusta convention last month, when she was succeeded by Mrs. Walter Grace, of Augusta.

Mrs. Harrold has two children, Miss Alice Harrold, of Americus, and Frank Walker Harrold, who is now practicing law in Atlanta, having been won by Young Harrold while a student at the University of Georgia.

Mrs. Harrold had headquarters dur-

Mrs. H. L. Parry, director of Girl Scout activities in Atlanta, who conducted training classes at Agnes Scott college presented certificates to 46 Girl Scout leaders Thursday afternoon at the college. She will commence the second class early in December, the program to include the training of leaders among college women for this remarkable organization. These classes are of great value to the Girl Scout movement, which is the oldest program for development among girls and the call has come from Vassar, Columbia and other colleges for the establishment of training classes among college women. Through this particular medium the message will be broadcast throughout every state in the union, for only college women are eligible for Girl Scout leaders.

The last troop of Girl Scouts organized in Atlanta includes 14 little girls in the Crippled Children's hospital. Mrs. Carter, the head nurse and her assistant have taken the training course and are directing the troop. Every part of the program

SECRETS OF HIS LIFE

One of the most noted, successful and richest men in this country in a recent article said, "Whatever I am and whatever success I have attained in this world I owe it all to my wife. From the day I first knew her she has been an inspiration and the greatest helpmate of my life." Health is the first essential of every woman who wants to be a successful wife and to hold the love and admiration of her husband. If a woman finds her energies flagging and dark circles appearing under her eyes, she has headache, nervousness and "the blues," she should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the medicine which holds the record of helping 98 out of every 100 women who try it. There is nothing better. (adv.)

Wedding Plans Of Miss Donaldson And Mr. Donaldson

The marriage of Miss Gladys Donaldson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Donaldson, and Earle Ray Donaldson, will take place Tuesday evening, November 27, at 8 o'clock at the Buckhead Baptist church on Pace's Ferry road. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. W. J. D. Upshaw.

The bride-elect will be given in marriage by her father, J. S. Donaldson, and her sister, Miss Lottie Donaldson, will be maid of honor.

The bridesmaids will be Misses Ethel Minor and Grace Lettew and Misses Montine and Vivian Donaldson, sisters of the bride-elect, will act as junior bridesmaids.

Little Sara Joyce Cunningham and Helen Kay will be flower girls and little Johnny Akin will be ring-bearer.

The groomsmen will be Rudolph Schneider, Tom Donaldson, Jasper Donaldson and Calhoun Metzger. Arthur Haxley will act as best man.

Miss Leona Wood and Roy Stidell will have charge of the musical program and Paul Crutchfield will sing.

Following the wedding rehearsal Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Donaldson will entertain at an informal reception.

Foot Warmers Will Play at Roseland

A bright event of Saturday evening will be the regular dance of the Musicians' club, for its members and friends, which will be given at the Roseland hall, 217 1-4 Peachtree street, with the popular Foot Warmers' orchestra rendering the dance program. Former visitors are cordially invited.

Mrs. Albert E. Thornton is founder of the Atlanta Girl Scouts and is vice president of the Girl Scouts of America. Another interesting note about this work is that 75 per cent of the mothers of Girl Scouts are also leaders. The type of women interested in the movement are splendid illustrations of the noblest and most influential in America.

New York, November 22.—Yesterday's big advance was followed by reactions in today's cotton market. December made a new high record for the season, selling at 35.75 at the opening but the demand was much less active than it was yesterday and prices soon weakened under realizing. December sold off to 35.15 in the late trading or about 90 points from the early high and 50 points net lower. That tendency was followed with the general market closing steady at net declines of 15 to 41 points.

The market opened firm at an advance of 15 to 18 points on a continuation of yesterday's buying movement which was encouraged by the relatively firm showing of Liverpool and reports of a continuing afternoon in Manchester. The opening advance, which carried January and later deliveries back to just about the best prices of yesterday afternoon, was checked by profit-taking. This was very well absorbed on comparatively moderate reactions during the morning, but the market was firm if the demand was being gradually filled up, and offerings increased during the early afternoon.

The selling was accompanied by rumors that foreign long interests were liquidating lines of long contracts and while some trade buying in prices on call and low grades at the time, the demand from that quarter became less active during the afternoon. A few spot orders were unworried on the decline which carried January off to 34.35 and May to 34.75, making net losses of 45 to 65 points on the active positions.

Last prices were several points up from the lowest on covering. There were rumors during the afternoon that Bremen interests were asking for offers of cotton for the first time in several weeks, and that some major buyers of low grades at the prevailing discounts. There were also reports of a little more business in cotton goods, but some of the brokers the day's market was pretty well dominated by the disposition to take profits above the 35c level.

SPOTS IN NEW ORLEANS

New Orleans, November 22.—Early advances in the price of cotton today were not maintained and the market ran into heavy realizing and much hedge selling, and developed something of a reactionary disposition. Heaviest pressure came during the afternoon when the active months were 22 to 50 points under the close of yesterday with January off to 34.15. New buyers came in just as the market was about to end with a steady tone and well up from the bottom, last sales being at net losses on the day of 100 to 200 points. The reaction in action in January contracts was done at 34.43.

For the advance of the early session, which carried December to its highest price of the season, 34.80, and other months up to, or within a few points of the highest, the reaction was mainly responsible. In addition there was a fairly good opinion of European political news, although this opinion was not retained throughout the session. After advances of 11 to 13 points the market encountered heavy selling, and during the whole of the afternoon the day was under more or less pressure.

Reports concerning troubles in the interior of Germany had much to do toward increasing offerings, but in addition there were reports of a great deal of spinning being done in west Texas and portions of Oklahoma, while the hedge selling of the day was thought by some traders to indicate a falling off in the demand, which, however, was not borne out by the total sales at all spot markets of the country, as they amounted to 40,022 bales, the largest spot transactions of the week.

Clark W. BoothCOTTON MEN HEAR OF NEW METHOD
TO BEAT WEEVIL

A plan to ward off the boll weevil, believed to be new in this section, was told to the Atlanta Commercial Exchange directors Thursday by Robert A. Smythe, president of the exchange.

The plan, a most unusual one, has been tried in Shreveport, La., by Louis C. Bulky, but knowledge of it came to Mr. Smythe in a letter from Mrs. A. Partridge Richard, of Cambridge, Mass.

In the first place, the seeds are coated with a thin skin of cement. They are then planted with a regular corn planter, four seeds to a hill—and the hills are equidistant, east and west, north and south.

The cement, it is said, attracts to itself any moisture in the surrounding earth, and the seed germinates from three to five days earlier than the untreated seeds.

The cultivation, it is explained, is done with horse and plow, first one way and then the other. This constant deep cultivation makes it almost impossible for the boll weevil to develop and the result is the highest grade of cotton, is the claim for the method.

Mr. Smythe, after bringing the matter to the attention of the board of directors of the exchange, said he would place the matter before the farmers of Georgia, so that the method could be tried out in this state.
